

The Kingston Daily Freeman.

VOL. XLVI—No. 8.

CITY OF KINGSTON, N. Y., THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 26, 1916.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

ROUSING RECEPTION GIVEN TO REPUBLICAN SPEAKERS

Hughes Mass Meeting Addressed by the Hon. Job E. Hedges and Addison B. Colvin—Audience Which Crowded Auditorium to Doors Hears Wilson's Record of Failure Ridiculed.

Before an enthusiastic audience which packed the main floor and balcony of the Y. M. C. A. auditorium to the doors, Former Judge Job E. Hedges made a masterly arraignment of the shortcomings of the Wilson administration, the failures of Democratic theories of government and the position in which the republic has been placed by a combination of Bryanism and Wilsonism dictating our foreign policy. "He kept us out of war," and other rhetoric which has replaced definite action at Washington was handled without gloves by Judge Hedges, who also pronounced the so-called "eight hour" law as "bunk" and a piece of class legislation destined to react most seriously upon organized labor.

It was a representative gathering of Kingston people and one keenly alive to the many inconsistencies of the Wilson administration as well as to the humiliating experiences which have marked its course. Judge Hedges had many a sharp thrust and underlying his ridicule was a serious note well calculated to stir the thinking processes of his hearers. Applause again and again interrupted his speech, the audience showing a lively appreciation of his shafts at the expense of the powers that be at Washington.

Chairman Harry H. Flemming of the Hughes Alliance presided at the meeting which was under the auspices of the Ulster county branch of that organization in co-operation with the Republican committee. A large number of prominent Republicans and Progressive occupied seats on the stage together with the local Republican candidates. Music was furnished by Muller's band. The speakers were escorted from the Hotel Stuyvesant by a score of well-filled automobiles and taken directly to the auditorium where a large crowd had already assembled.

People Turned Away.

Public interest in the Republican cause was well illustrated by the fact that the meeting opened three minutes before 8 o'clock, the hour set, by which time standing room was at a premium. Manager Gildersleeve said that the crowd numbered between 1,050 and 1,100 persons. Many were actually unable to gain admission.

In introducing the first speaker, Former State Treasurer Addison B. Colvin, Chairman Flemming stated that the Republican party, in the present campaign was a united party as contrasted with the situation in 1912 and he congratulated the assemblage upon the fact that speakers were present who had had experience in the affairs of this state. Mr. Colvin was warmly greeted.

He at once launched into a word picture of Charles E. Hughes, the Republican candidate, his remarks being punctuated with applause. On the other hand, he expressed great resentment at the claim of the Democrats that the president should be above criticism by virtue of his office.

"When it gets to a point in the affairs of this government," said Mr. Colvin, "when a man gets too high to be talked about, even though he be president, there is something wrong."

Actually Engaged in War.

Mr. Colvin then proceeded to show some of the things that were wrong, giving due credit to Mr. Wilson's ability as an author and literary man. "A due gentleman in every way," he said, "but an absolute failure as president of the United States. Now in the Mexican situation, wherever in this broad land there is an effort to discuss this, there is a holding up of hands by the party in power and a call for silence. Not a word must be spoken save 'He kept us out of war.' And now comes the Judge Advocate General of the Army, a military authority, who states that we are not only technically but actually in a state of war with Mexico."

"If we are not in a state of war what in blazes are 100,000 of our brave boys doing down on the Mexican border? They tell us that 200 troops have been hung on the doors of the homes of American manhood but what about the wives, parents and sisters of the 500 or more boys already sacrificed to 'peace' down on the border?"

"How about Vera Cruz? Has the flag been saluted yet? Only a little while ago we were going down there to get Villa dead or alive. Have we got him? This talk about peace is preposterous. It is a puffed, most nervous and most misunderstanding policy at Washington with respect to Mexico that can be imagined."

After the applause had subsided, the speaker launched into the tariff and pointed to the necessity for protection to meet the increased competition from abroad with the coming of peace.

Need is for Protection.

"What we must have," he declared, ed, "is a tariff act passed by a Republican house, signed by President Charles Evans Hughes and vetoed by Theodore Roosevelt, secretary of state!" Applause.

The speaker then scored the administration currency legislation and its absolute failure. The Democrats claim that it met the acute situation brought on by the opening of the war but in reality it was the "Vreeland-Aldrich" act that was enacted and saved the day for the four months following the crisis precipitated by hostilities. While the new law was asserted to prevent failures in its operation, the percentage of failures had been 33 per cent greater under its operation.

Mr. Colvin concluded his speech with an appeal to the young men casting their first presidential vote. He urged them to enroll with the Republican party under the inspiring leadership of Hughes and closed with a tribute to the latter as an ideal public servant that elicited an outburst of handclapping.

Chairman Flemming introduced Judge Hedges as an old friend to any Kingston audience and incidentally the most popular bachelor in the state. The judge prefaced his remarks with the statement that his popularity as a candidate did not fluctuate four years ago and as for being a popular bachelor any such popularity had failed to change him from the single state.

The speaker opened with a serious statement of the objects of the meeting which he believed to be the discussion of questions of the campaign in order to arrive at conclusions in the casting of ballots. He capped this by defining the members of the three leading parties and their position in the campaign. It was up to Republicans, he said, to renew their faith and to never apologize for being or having been a Republican; for Progressives to cheer up, now that they are back where they belong they'll feel better. As for Democrats he declared them as onlookers to see what is going to happen in the battle which he declared was between Hughes and the Republican party on one side against Woodrow Wilson on the other.

Wilson Not a Democrat.

"Judged by all the tenets of that political faith," said Judge Hedges, "Woodrow Wilson is not a Democrat" and he attacked the president for his interference with congress, the legislative branch of the government, in vigorous fashion. If Mr. Hughes should be elected president and should attempt the same sort of executive interference, the speaker said that he would oppose his re-nomination and re-election with equal vigor four years hence.

He then summarized the essential points in the campaign and explained why it was Hughes against Wilson rather than one party against another by saying that the presidential office had increased in its powers and importance far beyond anything the fathers ever dreamed, so much so that its personal and social influence has outpointed the judicial and legislative branches of government. He criticized the tendency to lengthen the presidential term to eight years, saying that four years was long enough for even a president to go without being called to account.

Three Wilson Claims.

Agreeing with editorial writers generally that this was the most important campaign since the sixties, the speaker proceeded to analyze the Democratic claims for support of Mr. Wilson, viz., he has kept us out of war; prosperity; and thirdly, that he has given the laboring man a law that is seductive and binds the laboring men to the Democrats under an implied contract.

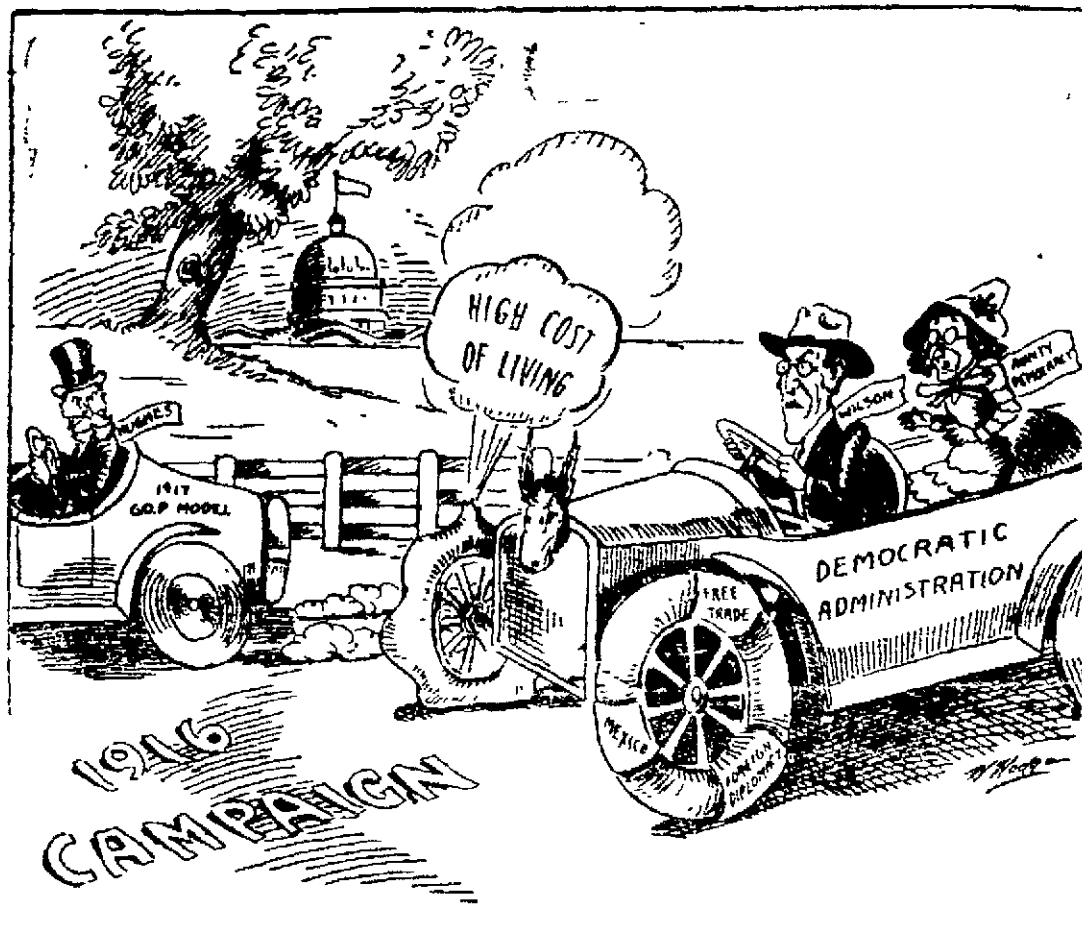

Opposed to this the Republican position is summarized that this prosperity is ephemeral; that the president has not kept us out of war; and thirdly that the old principle of protection is necessary in order to meet the conditions in world-wide effect when the war is over and protect the laboring man so that there may be work for him to do instead of having it all done abroad.

Phrases Are Seductive.

The seductiveness of the phrase "He has kept us out of war" was pointed out by Judge Hedges and his appeal to the parents and sisters and relatives of the militiamen emphasized. The speaker then read a letter from a citizeness being synonymous with sacrifice whenever that is necessary and reviewed the actions of President Wilson down to the present showing the hypocrisy that cloaks the "kept us out of war" argument.

For the first six months," he said, "my friend, William Jennings Bryan, was secretary of state, a position calling for the exercise of exceptional tact and a wide range of vision together with acute realization of the fact that the Almighty

(Continued on Page 4.)

Another blowout.

Cartoon by HODGE in The Spokane Spokesman-Review.

BAILEY STIRRED UP POST STREET

Got Drunk and Quarreled With Wife, Drove His Children Out of the House and Choked His Sister-in-law—Now in Jail.

George Bailey stirred up Post street on Wednesday afternoon when he came home from work and proceeded to get drunk quarrel with his wife, drive his children out of the house, choke his sister-in-law, and wound up by being placed under arrest by Policeman Reardon for using vile language on the public streets.

Bailey, after spending the night in the county jail, was arraigned before Recorder Lang this morning. He wore a bandage on his head and explained to the court that the other day while near an ice house on which some men were working a bolt fell striking him on the head. He said that he had but slight recollection of what occurred on Wednesday which led to his arrest as he had been drinking.

His mother-in-law was present in court and informed the recorder that Bailey had come home and got drunk and then proceeded to quarrel with his wife and drove his little children out of the house.

George said he did not remember driving the children out, but if he did it must have been because he was "correcting them."

It also developed that he had choked his sister-in-law, Anna Bailey, because she had come down while he and his wife were having a little quarrel.

George then left the house and was using vile language on the street when Policeman Reardon warned him he would be placed under arrest if he did not stop it. George shut up and went to a saloon where he evidently had a few more drinks for when he returned home he began to swear at a group of children across the street. He was then arrested by the officer. George has a steady job and begged hard for another chance. Recorder Lang said he would take into consideration the fact that Bailey had steady work, and would give him five days in jail to sober up.

Hasbrouck Cases to Referee.

Wednesday afternoon Corporation Counsel William D. Brannan appeared before Judge Hasbrouck and asked that cases No. 96 and 99 be taken from the day calendar as the attorneys in both cases had agreed to have them heard on November 15, before Judge James A. Betts as referee. Both cases are the Town of Marlbletown against P. Hasbrouck and others, actions to recover on bond. Van Etten & Cook appear for the plaintiff. Frank W. Brooks for Mr. Hasbrouck and Mr. Brannan for the sureties on the bond. The cases grew out of the same transaction and are to recover on different bonds, the facts are the same and both cases will be tried together.

Ditched Car to Save Child.

Serving his automobile to prevent the rear wheels rolling over a little girl who, riding in the car fell out. Emory Burger steered his car into a ditch near Gardiner Sunday, damaging the machine considerably, but saving the girl from being hit. She leaned out of the car too far and lost her balance. One finger was broken by the fall.

Boys Shot While Hunting.

Herbert DeGraw and Milton Teed, two Maybrook boys, were hunting rabbits Tuesday when one of them attempted to climb a fence. His gun was discharged in some manner and both lads were wounded in their legs. Amputation of the DeGraw boy's leg will be necessary and young Teed may lose a leg also.

WAR AT A GLANCE

The conquest of Rumania by the German Allies has met with sudden and unexpected obstacles.

Just at the time when it looked as though von Falkenhayn and von Mackensen would soon be driving against the heart of Rumania, the Russo-Rumanian armies have rallied and checked the advance.

Both Bucharest and Petrograd report a check for the Austro-German armies of von Falkenhayn. The Teutonic advance has been checked all along the Transylvanian border and driven back.

In Dobruja the attacks by von Mackensen have become less violent. A wireless dispatch from Berlin states that von Mackensen's guns now command the great 12-mile bridge across the Danube at Cor-nova. On the other hand an unofficial report stated that the bridge had been blown up.

Rumania continues the center of war interest. The plight of that country may have been responsible for the unexpected drive which the French have launched at Verdun. By compelling the Germans to reinforce their lines at Verdun the French would naturally compel the Germans to weaken their front elsewhere.

Indications that the Germans may try to launch a counter-offensive at Verdun is contained in the French official report. It says that the newly gained ground of the French was under artillery fire all night. This may have been a preparatory bombardment for infantry attacks.

In Macedonia the Serbians have captured some more Bulgarian trenches.

High interest has been aroused everywhere by a statement by Mr. Lloyd-George, the British war secretary, indicating that a British army may be sent to aid Rumania.

ASPHALT ROAD ON GRAND STREET

B. P. W. Decides to Improve Street on Account of Auto Works—That Slippery Strand—Other Street Notes.

Superintendent Van Keuren, of the board of public works, announced today that the work of building an asphalt road on Grand street would be started this afternoon. Grand street is in bad shape, and owing to the fact that the auto works have been taken over by the Emerson Motor Company, traffic will be greatly increased on that street, which has led the board to decide to improve it.

One of the best built roads in Kingston is that on the Strand, which was recently completed by Superintendent Van Keuren, but the road is best adapted to automobile traffic. Like the Ashokan boulevard, the Strand is rather dangerous for horses, and since the road has been built many horses have fallen on the slippery road, and cut themselves about the knees. This led to the street force on Wednesday dumping loads of sand on the road.

The work of building the Thomas street sewer has been completed, and work on the Andrew street sewer is progressing.

WIDE-AWAKE WEEK IN EDDYVILLE CHURCH

One of the very interesting events of the season will be held at Eddyville, lasting one week, beginning October 29. This event is known as Wide-Awake-Week, and every one is invited to come and bring their friends, seats are free and strangers are welcome. The pastor and the people of the church will be glad to see all and to give you a royal welcome. Several former pastors of the M. E. Church will be present and will be glad to renew old acquaintances and the people will be glad to hear their voices again from the pulpit.

The following is the program. Sunday, October 29—Opening services of the Wide-Awake-Week, with sermon at 10:30 a. m., by the Rev. Dr. John G. Oakley, of Yonkers 8 p. m., sermon by Dr. J. G. Oakley, of Yonkers, N. Y.

Monday, October 30, at 8 p. m.—Sermon by the Rev. F. C. Sommers, of Wingdale, N. Y.

Tuesday, October 31, at 8 p. m.—Sermon by the Rev. Dr. Eli Quick, of Tuxedo, N. Y.

Wednesday, November 1, at 8 p. m.—Sermon by Dr. Eli Quick, of Tuxedo, N. Y.

Thursday, November 2, at 8 p. m.—Sermon by the Rev. Dr. Charles A. Holla, of New York city.

Friday, November 3, at 8 p. m.—Sermon by the District Superintendent, the Rev. Dr. R. F. Bell.

Saturday, November 4, at 8 p. m.—Sermon by the Rev. K. M. Reynolds, of Fallsburgh, N. Y.

Sunday, November 5, at 12:30 p. m.—Sermon by the Rev. K. M. Reynolds, of Fallsburgh, N. Y.

Sermon by the Rev. S. P. Galloway, of Washington, N. J.

NEW PALTZ AIDED BY LEGISLATORS

Democratic Newspaper Praises Senator Walton and Assemblyman LeFevre for Work in Behalf of Normal School Appropriation.

Under the heading "Helping New Paltz," the New Paltz Times praises two experienced Republican legislators as follows:

"Our Democratic tendencies do not prevent us from selecting now and then good Republicans, and therefore we desire to state that among all the candidates on both sides this fall who should receive a large vote in New Paltz none are more deserving than Charles Walton, for state senator, and Abram P. LeFevre for assemblyman. Mr. Walton and Mr. LeFevre did more than any other two men to put through the state legislature the bill appropriating $125,000 for an addition to the state Normal School here. They have done a big thing for New Paltz, and the voters of New Paltz would do well to consider this at the coming election."

Trying to Avert Strike.

Negotiations have been begun in New York city by J. L. Davis, a federal mediator, to avert a threatened strike of 700 employees in the car shops of the New York, Ontario and Western railroad at Middletown. President John B. Kerr of the railroad company will meet a committee representing the men.

GOV. WHITMAN COMING TO PRESENT STATE ISSUES

Chief Executive to Render Accounting to Kingston Voters Tomorrow Morning at Broadway Auditorium—Special Train Due at 10:30 O'Clock on Trip Down Hudson Valley.

Governor Whitman will be in Kingston tomorrow and will speak at a big Republican mass meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Hall at 10:30 o'clock.

The opportunity to hear Governor Whitman has been looked forward to by the voters of Kingston city and Ulster county, and the governor's speeches in Kingston in the past always have been listened to with the closest attention and he has been accorded a hearty reception.

Governor Whitman and his party are campaigning in a special train in order to visit all parts of the state and the demand from all localities for a speech from him has been unprecedented. Voters realize that the governor, more than any other man, is best qualified to discuss state issues, and they want to hear him. The party is composed of the governor, his secretaries and stenographers and newspaper correspondents.

The meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Hall will open at 10:30 o'clock and Governor Whitman will be escorted there immediately on his arrival. His train will arrive at the West Shore station about 10:30 o'clock and he will go to the Y. M. C. A. Hall at once. After the meeting he will again board the special train, which will continue its trip southward along the Hudson river. Before reaching Kingston, Governor Whitman will speak at a Republican mass meeting to be held at the railroad station at Poughkeepsie.

The doors at the Y. M. C. A. Hall will open a ten o'clock and a band concert will be held before the meeting.

Every voter who wants to hear the state issues intelligently discussed by the chief executive should attend the meeting tomorrow morning. Nobody can afford to miss it.

THREE ACCIDENTS PAST THREE DAYS

Charles Himan, a member of the street force, is confined to his home on Stephen street from injuries received while at work on Thomas street on Wednesday. Mr. Himan was standing in a wagon busy unloading it when the horse suddenly started up and Mr. Himan lost his balance and was hurled out, striking on his head. Dr. Norwood is attending him.

Anthony Hoffman of Chambers street, while chopping wood on Wednesday, cut his thumb so severely with an axe that Dr. Keefe found it necessary to take ten stitches to sew up the wound.

Another case of an axe slipping while chopping wood was that of Joseph Manning of Spring street, who on Tuesday cut himself in the leg. Dr. Keefe, who was summoned, found it necessary to take a number of stitches to sew up the wound.

HEBREW SCHOOL OPENS SUNDAY

Applicant for Principalship Will Be Here Friday and Saturday and Lecture in Congregation Agudas Achaim.

The Hebrew Free School, corner Spring and Post streets, will open for the fall session on Sunday. The trustees expect a registration of between seventy-five and one hundred pupils. Three teachers will be in charge of the school.

J. D. Braveman, Ph.D., who answered the trustees' advertisement for a principal for the school, will be here Friday and Saturday and will deliver a lecture both evenings in the Congregation Agudas Achaim on West Union street. If he is approved he will be engaged to have charge of the school.

Church's 200th Anniversary.

The celebration of the 200th anniversary of the First Reformed Church, Fishkill, came to a most successful close Wednesday evening after three eventful days. Wednesday evening was known as civic night and among the speakers were Congressman Edmund Platt and Judge Frank Hasbrouck. Representatives were present from the Reformed Churches in Kingston, New Hackensack, Poughkeepsie, Beacon and Hopewell.

SEVEN LIVELY LITTLE SNAKES

And Mr. Crispell Has a Whole Tub Full Left on His Hurley Snake Farm.

Whether the cultivation of snakes in a glass jar or under normal conditions on their native heath results in a healthier, livelier, more intelligent breed of reptiles is an important problem whose solution probably can be readily determined because of the presentation this morning by John B. Crispell of Hurley of a can of seven little snakes to Fire Commissioner William S. Eltinge, at whose drug store the cultivating process was carried on until recently of the snakes hatched from snake eggs presented by Mr. Crispell to The Freeman office during the summer.

The seven little snakes presented to Fire Commissioner Eltinge today by Mr. Crispell were raised from the same lot of eggs from which the glass-jar specimens were grown, and apparently the two lots are full brothers and sisters. Unfortunately the parent snakes have disappeared so that it will be impossible to determine the question of relationship with their assistance.

Today's addition to the snake population were hatched in a tub of earth at Mr. Crispell's farm. The eggs formed part of the same lot from which Mr. Crispell's gift to The Freeman in the summer were selected. The new lot of snakes are not quite as fat as those born in Mr. Eltinge's drug store, but the latter had the advantage of being fed on various valuable food preparations for babies and invalids with which Mr. Eltinge's drug store abounds.

The snakes in the store did not, of course, have access to such health-giving preparations, but there was a big supply from which they could be fed, and that they must have been fed on something better than ordinary snake food or they would not have looked sleek and fat enough to attract the attention of Mr. Eltinge, who adopted them with Mr. Eltinge's consent on Monday. There were only two of the snakes remaining alive when the adoption occurred several days ago, but if Mr. Eltinge is anxious to increase his snake collection it is possible that Mr. Eltinge will be willing to part with the seven new ones.

Should Mr. Eltinge decide to adopt the seven snakes brought to town by Mr. Crispell today, it is pointed out that he will have enough on hand to train for a double quartet and have one left over to train as their leader. Just how sweetly snakes can sing never has been determined by anyone in Kingston, although a number of residents are familiar with the music made by men who thought their acquaintance with reptiles was becoming too intimate for comfort.

As a boy Mr. Crispell caught snakes for his uncle, who was a celebrated naturalist in New York city and with whom he was associated in business for some time when a young man. In catching snakes, particularly rattlers—Mr. Crispell used a forked stick which he placed over the snake's head and neck. Thus pinned down, the snake was unable to get away and it was easy to place him in a bag.

If anyone wants a few pet snakes for playmates for the children or for any other purpose, there are still a number of little fellows left in the training tub at Mr. Crispell's farm at Hurley, and he will be glad to present them to applicants who are willing to treat them kindly.

Pine Hill Without an Inn.

T. S. Cole has closed his hotel at this place for the winter and there is now no place in Pine Hill where the traveling public or tourists can secure accommodations. To keep the hotel open during the winter without a license would certainly be a losing business proposition and so long as a license remains a no-license town the place will only be open during the summer season. Pine Hill Optic.

County Union Executive Meeting.

The executive committee of the Ulster County Christian Endeavor Union will hold an important business session on Friday evening at 5:30 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. The Rev. G. H. Scofield of Highland, president of the union, will preside.

Lake Mohawk Closed Tuesday.

Tuesday, October 24, marked the closing of Lake Mohawk's twenty-seventh season, one of the most successful in all the interesting phases of Mohawk life.

Doings of the Van Loons—Anyway it's nice to talk about them

THE call of the open--away from the city's noise and din--is even more enticing when it promises an occasional bottle of cool, mildly-stimulating

Old Stock Lager

THE QUALITY BREW

The popularity of this health-food-beverage as an out-of-doors beverage is growing daily. It has all the merits of a refreshing, cheering brew with unquestioned health benefits. Are you drinking this superb beer?

PETER BARMANN

Brewery 'Phone 66 Kingston

WANTED EXPERIENCED SHIRT OPERATORS

OR GIRLS WHO HAVE OPERATED POWER MACHINES

Beginners also taken and will be paid well while learning. Steady work assured.

FULLER'S SHIRT FACTORY

PINE GROVE AVE., KINGSTON, N. Y.

MUSIC THAT ENDURES.

Masterpieces That Will Never Die Interpreted by Modern Orchestra.

How times and manners change is nowhere more evident than in the world of music and musicians. Every few years finds a new phase of popular music, but popular music does not endure and the master-compositions of music like the masterpieces of art of literature remain the same, always unimpaired but never surpassed.

A study of the music masters and their compositions has led to strange revelations which have been entertainingly described by Josef Strinsky, conductor of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra, which will open the season of the Dodge concerts at the high school auditorium on Thursday evening of next week.

"That times change and humanity changes with them is a trite saying but we must admit it when our attention is struck in a forcible manner by chance," he says.

"Take for instance the case of Haydn. He is generally recognized as the father of the symphony and the creator of the modern orchestra. He was a member of the household of Prince Esterhazy and his duties were many."

"According to the document appointing him to the office of vice-chaplain to the Prince in 1761, he was charged to appear every morning in the Prince's ante-room to receive orders touching the table music and entertainments for the day; to bear himself with becoming modesty at all times; to keep sober himself, and enforce sobriety upon his band; to appear at concerts with a clean face and a tidy livery, including white stockings, white linen, powdered wig, with either a cue or a half-bag. These details are on the authority of Dr. Hanslick."

"It surprises us now as we look back at some of these records to think of the orchestra as it then was. Until we do make the comparison the development of the past century and a half is not clear. In Haydn's orchestra at Prince Esterhazy's there were never more than twenty-four members. Five years after Haydn had entered the service, the orchestra consisted of seventeen players distributed as follows: Six violins and violas, one violoncello, one double-bass, one flute, two oboes, two bassoons and four horns."

"The New York Philharmonic has more than five times this number of players in its orchestra and the duties of the conductor, I may say in passing, have changed considerably since Haydn's time."

ROSENDALE.

Rosendale, Oct. 26.—There will be preaching in the Reformed Church on Sunday, November 5, both morning and evening, by the Rev. Mr. Collier. It is hoped there will be a goodly number of the congregation present.

Mrs. Alvah Murard of New Paltz spent Tuesday last with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Freer.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Wood spent Sunday with relatives in Kingston. Abram Sammons, an aged resident of this village, who has been confined to his home by illness the past few days, is somewhat improved at present.

Mrs. Kate Wright spent the week end with friends in Poughkeepsie. The Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Miller of Tilton called on friends in this village one day the past week.

Mrs. Minerva of New York is a guest of her son, Charles, in this village.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hone are at Mr. Vernon's spending a week at their summer home, "The Calms." Mr. Hone and son are also enjoying some fine hunting around the country.

Mrs. Andrew Smith is visiting her parents on Long Island.

Friends from Brooklyn are visiting Mrs. William Bullis in this village.

Mrs. Scott and daughter of James moved to Kingston the past week.

The work on the new state road near Corn Hill is progressing nicely under the supervision of Contractor George McAvoy.

Mrs. John Slater of Kingston attended the chicken supper in All Saints parish house on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Charles Ten Hagen visited her sister, Mrs. J. A. Lay, at the Benedictine Sanatorium, Kingston, on Wednesday.

James G. Smith was called to Accord on Sunday to see his daughter, Mrs. Mary Condon, who was seriously ill. She passed away before her father reached her home.

One Smith of Newburgh was a week and guest of Miss Annie McGinn of this village.

Mrs. Mary Ann Ackerman, who has been spending a week with relatives in St. Remy, returned home on Friday.

Harry Ten Hagen of Poughkeepsie spent the week end with his father, J. H. Ten Hagen, on Main street.

John Hone, one of our village milk peddlers, has gone out of business, much to the regret of his patrons.

James Hasbrouck, a Civil War veteran, died at the Soldiers' Home in Bath on Sunday evening. His body was brought to this village on Wednesday morning and the funeral held from his late residence on Thursday at 1 p. m. He is survived by his widow and two sons, George of West Park and Nicholas of Union Hill, N. J., and one daughter, Mrs. Deputy Davis, of Kingston.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ten Hagen spent Sunday afternoon at High Falls.

James Davis of Union Hill, N. J., is home to attend the funeral of his grandfather, James Hasbrouck.

Roy Veeder of Kingston was in this village on Monday.

Thomas Moornbeck of New York and Mrs. Harry Madden of Kingston called on Mrs. E. A. Conway on Sunday afternoon.

John Christians and family attended the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Mary Coddington, at Accord, on Wednesday.

Jack McKee of Cheshire, Mass., spent the week end in this village.

Mrs. Elmer Plantz visited Kingston on Monday.

LOMONTVILLE.

Lomontville, Oct. 25.—Mrs. Foster Winchell is visiting her daughter in Poughkeepsie.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ten Hagen and little daughter of High Falls spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Hotelling.

Mrs. James Bonist and family motored to Liberty last week and spent a few days with relatives there.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Winchell recently entertained Mr. and Mrs. R. Francisco of Staatsburg.

Game hunters and nut-hunters, some very bold ones, especially of the latter class, are very plentiful just now.

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

1774—A Smart But Simple Gown.

This attractive model would be nice for taffeta in a solid color, in stripes or checks. It is also good for linen, batiste, crepe, chambray, gingham and other wash materials. The collar and neck frills could be of net, tulle or lace. Contrasting material could be used for the skirt and waist trimming. The sleeve may be of the same material, or of a contrasting color. The pattern is cut in 6 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measure. It requires 7 1/2 yards of 36 inch material for a 36 inch size. The skirt measures about 3 1/2 yards at the foot.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 1 cent in silver or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Rondout, N. Y. Be sure to state the size wanted.

Catalogue Notice.

Send 10 cents in silver or stamps for our up-to-date 1916 large Fall and Winter Catalogue, containing over 400 designs of Ladies' Misses' and Children's Patterns, as well as the latest Embroidery Designs, also on dressmaking, giving valuable hints a concise and comprehensive article to the home dressmaker.

A Complete Manual in Crochet and Tatting!

Just what you will say when you are asked to make a crocheted or tatting article. This book contains more than 500 fully illustrated designs and is the best of its kind. It is a complete manual for the home dressmaker, and a wealth of information for the professional. It is a complete manual for the home dressmaker, and a wealth of information for the professional. It is a complete manual for the home dressmaker, and a wealth of information for the professional.

Manual will be sent upon receipt of 10 cents in stamps or silver. Write your name and address plainly and address your order to the Pattern Dept., Freeman Publishing Co., Kingston, N. Y.

The KITCHEN CABINET

If a girl in business is entrusted with a delicate piece of machinery, she is taught the structure, use and care of it. How much more necessary is the need for teaching her the care of her wonderful body.

SOME GOOD THINGS.

A nice way to serve plum pudding is to steam them in individual molds, then decorate each with almonds that have been shredded lengthwise and browned.

These little porcupines may then be served with a ball of hard sauce or a lemon, egg, or any desired sauce. A rich pudding served this way is more apt to be eaten than the larger slices, and much more dainty and attractive.

Supper Dish.—Take one and a half pounds of calf's liver and a half pound of fresh, fat pork, chop fine, season with chopped onion, a little powdered sage and a teaspoonful of pepper and salt. Steam over boiling water for half an hour, skimming off the fat as it rises. When cold, add a cupful and a quarter of crumbs and three well-beaten eggs. Mix all thoroughly together and add a grating of nutmeg.

Shape into oblong forms, like sausages, rolling each in flour. Put them into a well-greased pan and bake slowly for half an hour, or until a nice brown in color. Place them on a hot dish, pour off the fat, make a thickened sauce in the pan, with a little spoonful of flour and a little water; serve very hot.

Pork Tenderloins in the Chafing Dish.—Remove the small rounds of meat from the pork ribs, or cut the whole tenderloin if procured, in inch-thick slices; add a cupful of gravy, a few drops of tabasco sauce, a dash of salt, a half cupful of tomato catsup, and a small piece of butter; simmer only until the meat is tender and well cooked; stir in a cupful of cooked macaroni and serve hot with fried hominy, garnished with crisp parsley.

Jellied Oatmeal.—Place three cupfuls of water and one of milk in the upper part of the double boiler, add a pinch of salt and when boiling stir in two cupfuls of oatmeal; cover closely and cook for two hours over hot water; then add, just previous to serving, one cupful of stiffly whipped cream; serve in china dishes, sprinkle with chopped nut meats, and accompany with sugar and thick cream.

Nellie Maxwell

TIME TABLE FERRYBOAT TRANSPORT

In effect Sunday, Oct. 15, 1916. Leaves Kingston.—6:30, 7:40, 9:00, 9:45, 10:30, 11:30 a. m. 12:10, 12:50, 1:50, 2:05, 2:40, 3:15, 3:50, 4:25, 5:00, 5:35, 6:15, 6:50 p. m.

Leaves Rhinecliff.—7:15, 8:10, 9:30, 10:00, 11:10, 11:50 a. m. 12:30, 1:10, 1:45, 2:00, 2:45, 3:30, 4:05, 4:40, 5:15, 5:55, 6:30, 7:05 p. m.

THE W. G. Browne Manufacturing Co.

Phone 315-J Kingston, New York.

Central Hudson Steamboat Company

SOUTH BOUND FOR NEW YORK. Week days except Saturday at 4 p. m. Sundays at 5 p. m.

NORTH BOUND FOR KINGSTON. Daily. Sundays excepted, from Pier 24 N. R., foot of Franklin street at 4 p. m., West 123rd Street at 4:30 p. m.

NEWBURGH, ALBANY AND TROY LINE. Daily except Sundays. North bound at 10:30 a. m. South bound at 2:15 p. m. J. F. STEED, Agent. Tel. 155.

GO TO BERMUDA

Cooler Than Middle Atlantic Coast Resorts For Your Vacation 8-Day Tours 42.50 & up

Including All Expenses—Steamer, Hotel and Side Trips. All Outdoor Sports, Including Golf, Tennis, Boating, Fishing, etc. S. S. "Bermudian"

Sells from N. Y. alternate Weds. & Sat. For booklets apply to Quebec & S. Co. or Broadway, New York, or any Ticket Agent.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—In pursuance of an order of Hon. Walter N. Gill, Judge of the County of Ulster, Ulster County, New York, in and for the town of Rochester, County of Ulster, deceased, to present the same with the vouchers in support thereof, to the undersigned, Marshall McCabe and Edward McCabe, the executors of the estate of said deceased, at the office of V. R. Van Wageningen, in this village, Kingston, in the said County of Ulster, on or before the first day of March, 1917.

Dated, August 17, 1916. MARSHALL MCCABE, EDWARD MCCABE, as Executors of Will of Elizabeth McCabe, Deceased.

V. R. Van Wageningen, Attorney, Kingston.

TIME TABLE OF ULSTER & DELAWARE RR

IN EFFECT SEPT. 29, 1916. Trains are due to leave this city as follows: Rondout Sta. 6:55 a. m., 12:15 p. m., 6:55 p. m. Kingston Sta. 7:05 a. m., 12:20 p. m., 7:05 p. m. Ulster Sta. 11:35 a. m., 6:15 p. m. Rondout Sta. 11:55 a. m., 6:35 p. m. Daily except Sunday. Sunday only.

W. H. CONNELLY, M.D.

Physician, Surgeon and Specialist. Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat. FAIR ST. KINGSTON, N. Y. Office Hours—9:30 a. m. until 12 m. Telephone 627-J.

ULSTER COUNTY Savings Institution

280 Wall Street, Kingston, N. Y. INCORPORATED 1911.

E. H. LOUGHRAN, President.

HARRY R. BRIGHAM, Vice-President.

CHARLES S. WOOD, Secretary.

J. M. SCHAEFFER, Treasurer.

JOHN B. ALLIGER, Bookkeeper.

JAMES J. O'CONNOR, Attorney.

JOHN R. T. HALL, Trustee.

PHILIP ELTING, Trustee.

For the six months ending June 30th, 1916, interest will be credited July 1st, 1916, at 4 per cent per annum.

Interest not drawn will be added to the principal and draw interest.

Money deposited on or before Nov. 3rd and remaining to the bank until July 1st, 1917, will be credited with eight (8) months' interest.

Women and children under age have by law the control of their own saving bank accounts.

Persons living out of the city may send money by bank draft, check, post office order or express, and deposit book will be returned by mail. ALL BUSINESS STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL.

Kingston Savings Bank

873 Wall street, Kingston, N. Y. CHARTERED 1874.

OFFICERS: MYRON TELLER, President.

GEORGE BURGEVIN, Vice-President.

V. B. VAN WAGENEN, Treasurer.

CHARLES TAPPEN, Assistant Treasurer.

CHARLES H. DE LAVERGNE, Accountant.

HARRY ENSIGN, Trustee.

JAMES A. BETTS, Trustee.

James A. Betts, George Burgevin, Zadoc P. Beter, Levan S. Winne, Everett Fort, D. N. Matthews, John E. Kraft, Sam Bernstein, Charles Tappan, A. D. Rose, Myron Teller, Virgil B. Van Wageningen, John J. Campbell.

Deposits made on or before Nov. 3, 1916, and remaining in bank until July 1, 1917, will be credited with eight (8) months' interest.

Interest will be paid on all sums from one dollar to three thousand dollars.

Accounts may be opened by mail for which a bank book will be forwarded on receipt of New York draft, certified check, postoffice or express money order.

Rooms for the convenience of the ladies are a feature of the banking house.

Interest at the rate of 4% per annum was declared for six months ending June 30, 1916.

THE RONDOUT Savings Bank

RONDOUT, N. Y.

OFFICERS: J. A. DRENNEN, President.

F. C. KENDALL, Vice-President.

L. L. OYSTER, Secretary.

DATON MURRAY, Treasurer.

JOHN D. SCHONMANN, Trustee.

J. A. DRENNEN, Trustee.

F. C. KENDALL, Trustee.

L. L. OYSTER, Trustee.

DATON MURRAY, Trustee.

JOHN D. SCHONMANN, Trustee.

J. A. DRENNEN, Trustee.

F. C. KENDALL, Trustee.

L. L. OYSTER, Trustee.

DATON MURRAY, Trustee.

JOHN D. SCHONMANN, Trustee.

J. A. DRENNEN, Trustee.

F. C. KENDALL, Trustee.

L. L. OYSTER, Trustee.

DATON MURRAY, Trustee.

JOHN D. SCHONMANN, Trustee.

J. A. DRENNEN, Trustee.

F. C. KENDALL, Trustee.

L. L. OYSTER, Trustee.

DATON MURRAY, Trustee.

JOHN D. SCHONMANN, Trustee.

J. A. DRENNEN, Trustee.

F. C. KENDALL, Trustee.

L. L. OYSTER, Trustee.

DATON MURRAY, Trustee.

JOHN D. SCHONMANN, Trustee.

J. A. DRENNEN, Trustee.

F. C. KENDALL, Trustee.

L. L. OYSTER, Trustee.

DATON MURRAY, Trustee.

JOHN D. SCHONMANN, Trustee.

J. A. DRENNEN, Trustee.

F. C. KENDALL, Trustee.

L. L. OYSTER, Trustee.

DATON MURRAY, Trustee.

JOHN D. SCHONMANN, Trustee.

J. A. DRENNEN, Trustee.

F. C. KENDALL, Trustee.

L. L. OYSTER, Trustee.

DATON MURRAY, Trustee.

JOHN D. SCHONMANN, Trustee.

J. A. DRENNEN, Trustee.

F. C. KENDALL, Trustee.

L. L. OYSTER, Trustee.

DATON MURRAY, Trustee.

JOHN D. SCHONMANN, Trustee.

J. A. DRENNEN, Trustee.

F. C. KENDALL, Trustee.

L. L. OYSTER, Trustee.

DATON MURRAY, Trustee.

JOHN D. SCHONMANN, Trustee.

J. A. DRENNEN, Trustee.

F. C. KENDALL, Trustee.

L. L. OYSTER, Trustee.

DATON MURRAY, Trustee.

JOHN D. SCHONMANN, Trustee.

J. A. DRENNEN, Trustee.

F. C. KENDALL, Trustee.

L. L. OYSTER, Trustee.

DATON MURRAY, Trustee.

JOHN D. SCHONMANN, Trustee.

J. A. DRENNEN, Trustee.

F. C. KENDALL, Trustee.

L. L. OYSTER,

HURRICANE MAY BE IN THE MAKING

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, Oct. 26.—That a new West Indian hurricane may be brewing was indicated in reports received by the weather bureau today showing the prevalence of unusually high winds and abnormally low pressure over the Caribbean Sea and the West Indies, extending far into the southeastern Gulf of Mexico. Definite evidence of an independent disturbance off the southeastern coast of Florida also was received. Weather forecasters ordered the display of advisory warning along the Middle Atlantic and Gulf coasts until the extent of the disturbance is more definitely determined.

Professor Frankfield, of the bureau, said that several hours would elapse before it would be possible to gauge the seriousness of the storm.

UGGETS OF NEWS.

Unusual Events Briefly Told in Telegraph Despatches.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, Oct. 26.—Albert L. Blum bloomed into flower when he secured the supreme court's permission to change his name to Flower. His original cognomen grated on the nerves of pro-Ally hotel clerks, he said.

Jersey City, N. J.—Mrs. Emma Green bases her suit for a divorce from her husband on the ground that he often called her a "low blow."

White Plains, N. Y.—In a will of 42 words Seth R. Hart disposed of his $15,000 estate. It is the smallest will ever filed here.

Chicago—Joseph Heffernan admitted to Judge Mahoney that he had his gold teeth extracted and pawned them for a drink. He was fined $25.

Chicago—Morris Wheeler went before a priest and took the pledge for five years. Feeling he would be unable to keep it, he slashed his throat an hour later.

TILLSON.

Tillson, Oct. 26.—The hat party held in the hall Friday night by the Willing Workers was a social success.

The Christian Endeavor will give a Halloween party Saturday evening. Five cents will be charged at the door and ice cream will be for sale.

Mrs. John Freer of Poughkeepsie visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Christianson over Sunday.

Miss Helen Krom and Miss Hazel Nerline visited Kingston Friday.

Jacob Coones is visiting his brother, James H. Coones.

A number of our young people attended a dance at Warren Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Clark and children of Kingston visited relatives here over Sunday.

There was no preaching in the Reformed Church Sunday evening.

Miss Vera Mason has returned home after visiting friends in New York city.

Mrs. M. Krom and daughter, Helen, visited at V. Quick's at Ohioville Tuesday.

Mrs. James H. Gallagher has been spending the past week with relatives in New York.

George M. Sneddes has gone to Spillway for a few weeks.

Marcus Krom is doing the carpenter work on the new state road that is being built.

This community was greatly shocked to hear of the sudden death of Earl LeFever of Springtown Sunday morning.

Lottie Craig is visiting her grandparents in this place.

Timothy Mason moved his family to Poughkeepsie.

Emily Soli has gone to New York, where she will attend school.

Ed Coones has started the blacksmith shop on the corner by Gallagher's Hotel.

ALLIGERVILLE.

Alligerville, Oct. 26.—The Misses Jennie V. Young and Mary R. Garrison and Mr. and Mrs. Abram Cross have returned from Mohonk Lake.

Mrs. Marian Kearney spent Sunday at D. Schoonmaker's.

Floyd Garrison and family of Ellenville have been visiting George W. Garrison and family.

Wasson Steen spent Sunday at home.

James Chase and family are going to move to Accord.

W. F. Brooks and wife, as guests of V. B. Cross and wife, attended the Old Fellows' supper at Tongore on Saturday evening and report a fine time and plenty of good things to eat.

The Rev. and Mrs. N. L. Leroy of Accord called at D. Schoonmaker's and Edwin Cook's on Tuesday.

The Messrs. J. H. and M. V. Smith, Joseph and Eli Evans, W. F. Brooks, Cornelius Terwilliger, George W. Garrison attended the K. of P. lodge at Kingston on Monday evening.

The Rev. Charles Langremond received his second degree as a member of that order.

Service will be held in the M. E. Church on Thursday evening.

H. B. DeWitt and wife attended the wedding of their son, Stanley G. DeWitt, to Miss Pauline E. Schuchardt, on Saturday, October 21, at Pica, N. Y.

Chicago Grain Market.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—Wheat closed steady to 1/4 cent higher. Corn was 1/2 @ 3/4 cents lower and oats 1/2 @ 3/4 cent lower. Provisions were slightly lower.

Wheat—Dec., $1.80 1/2 to $1.80 3/4. May, $1.50 1/2 to $1.50 3/4. July, $1.45 to $1.45 1/2.

Corn—Dec., $1.14 bid. May, $1.04 to $1.04 1/2. July, $0.94.

Oats—Dec., $0.53 1/2. May, $0.54 bid.

Toughest Weed.

The toughest American weed, according to forestry service terms, is that of the orange orange.

ELLENVILLE.

Ellenville, Oct. 26.—The Ellenville Medical Club through the courtesy of St. John's Episcopal Church takes pleasure in announcing its first free organ recital to be given on Monday evening, October 30, at 8 o'clock. Every one is welcome. No cards of admission are required and only a silver offering will be taken to cover incidental expenses of light, heat, etc. The following program, as arranged, will be given:

PART ONE.

Hymn 804.
Prayer and address—The Rev. Dr. H. F. Hobson.
Organ offertory in G. Rytter
Miss Nellie Hobson.
Vocal solo, "Garden of Prayer." Vernon Roy
Mrs. Walter S. Maines.
Violin solo, Schumann's, Opus 124, No. 16. Schumann
Mrs. Richard Elting.
Organ prelude, Op. 73, No. 1. J. L. Battman
Mrs. William D. Cunningham.
Vocal solo, "Abide With Me." S. Liddle
Mrs. Edward B. Kimble.
Organ, "Ave Maria." Verdi
Miss Josephine Carver.
Vocal solo, "Jesus My Savior Look On Me." Thayer
Miss Bertha Demarest.

PART TWO.

Grand offertory, St. Cecilia Op. 8. Baliste
Frank J. Campbell.
Vocal solo, "Save Me O Lord." Randegger
Mrs. John H. Dillie.
Violin solo, Largo. Handel
Mrs. Richard Elting.
Organ, "Aria in D." Bach
Miss Hobson.
Vocal duet, "Thy Peace O Lord." Neidlinger
Misses Virginia and Pauline Taylor.
Organ, "Chorus of Angels." Scotson Clark
Miss Carver.
Vocal quartet, "In Heavenly Love." Kuechen
Mrs. John R. DeVany, Mrs. E. B. Kimble, the Misses Demarest and Taylor.
Organ solo, March from Sonata Opus 35. Chopin
Offertory, Hymn 195, and blessing.

There was a large attendance at the Democratic mass meeting held at Norbury Hall Tuesday evening. Clayton's Band gave a concert on Main street square and in front of the Democratic headquarters and then marched to the hall where they played several selections. A number of gentlemen occupied seats on the platform. The Hon. Thomas E. Benedict, as chairman, introduced the speakers of the evening, who were the Hon. James B. Egerston of Washington, D. C.; Alfred D. Van Buren, William C. DeWitt and Milton O. Auchmoody of Kingston. All the addresses received hearty applause. The same evening a Hebrew Democratic mass meeting was held at the synagogue on Center street. Excellent speakers endorsed Wilson and Marshall and the Democratic platform. The building was crowded and a very enthusiastic meeting was held.

One of the most delightful social functions of the autumn season was held at the Mitchell House Tuesday evening. It came under the head of social affairs as the wind up of the finances of the old "Port Ben Club."

This club was put out of business or commission when the old canal gave way and the O. & W. railroad went down the valley to Kingston. The treasurer of this said club disposed of a remaining building at "Port Ben," now Wawarsing station. Thereby hangs the tale, what to do with the money which has been kept intact. The ladies of the old club decided to spend it, thus the banquet followed.

Covers were laid for the guests and the following ladies gathered round Miss Hest McDonald's board: Mrs. W. C. McNally, Mrs. E. C. Derby, Mrs. John A. Tice, Mrs. Albert Fuller, Mrs. R. T. Cookingham, Mrs. Harry R. Carver, Mrs. George J. Hoorbeck, Mrs. H. B. Dutcher, Mrs. L. A. Hoorbeck, Mrs. H. C. Thyson, Mrs. B. E. Saunders, Mrs. W. C. Parsons, Mrs. E. S. Carver, Mrs. J. R. DeVany, Mrs. H. J. Shurtler, Mrs. G. W. Harker, Mrs. F. J. Campbell, Mrs. B. F. Neal, Mrs. A. N. Rapp, Mrs. F. J. Potter, Mrs. H. S. Wells, Mrs. W. S. Doyle, Mrs. James A. Myers, Mrs. F. Andrews. The dinner was served in the dining hall at 8:30 o'clock. The decorations being pink carnations, which were favors, and the following menu was served:

Grapes, with Maraschino cherries, tomato bisque, celery, olives, pickles, baked ham, peach short cake with whipped cream, roast turkey with dressing, mashed potatoes, creamed onions, baked stuffed peppers, tomato and lettuce salad, brown and white bread, ice cream, assorted cakes, coffee. At the close of this beautiful repast, Mrs. J. Potter arose and addressed the ladies in a fine reminiscent talk and said in part that the ladies present had prepared a little surprise for one of the members present, Mrs. W. C. McNally, who was soon to leave for the sunny south to spend the winter, and a tray was then brought forth upon which rested packages and this was presented to Mrs. McNally as a token of remembrance from each lady and the request that the packages be opened. Mrs. McNally, too full for utterance at the surprise, proceeded to open the packages and found beneath paper and ribbon a very clever bit of original poetry accompanying each gift. The gifts were truly appreciated. The place cards at each plate were very clever reminders of happy bygone days at the old Port Ben Club house, where the ladies had spent many happy hours and on special occasions the husbands and old sweethearts enjoyed happy hours in the dear old delightful spot. Following the happy hour in the dining hall the ladies repaired to the parlors and enjoyed an hour or more at games before good nights were said.

Emerson Co. Takes Title.

The Emerson Motors Company, Inc., has taken title to the old Peckham plant and one of the officers of the company is expected to arrive in the city today to make a payment of $5,000 on the mortgage, the principal of which it will be reduced that amount annually until paid.

RUMANIANS BLOW UP GREAT BRIDGE

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Berlin, via Sayville Wireless, Oct. 26.—The great 12 mile bridge spanning the Danube at Cernavoda, has been blown up by the Rumanians, the German war office announced today.

The destruction of the bridge followed the retreat of the Russo-Rumanian forces from Cernavoda. German aviators have bombarded Pateshti at the western end of the bridge.

Advises had been received here several hours before the war office report was given out to the effect that the Rumanians had made an attempt to wreck the bridge, but the extent of damage done to the mighty structure was not stated.

LEIBHARDT.

Leibhardt, Oct. 26.—Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Devore of Accord were guests at the Lawrence residence Saturday evening.

Wilbur Brown has employment at William Smith's at Accord.

Those from this place who attended the social at Upper Mombaccus last Wednesday evening reported a nice time.

Thomas Churchill and family have moved to Livingston Manor, Sullivan county.

Mrs. Simon Hornbeck and daughter, Miss Minnie, of Whitefield, were week end guests of relatives and friends in this place.

Miss Emily Quick returned on Sunday from a pleasant visit with relatives at Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Quick spent Sunday and Monday with her brother, David Smith, at Samsonville.

Mrs. Wilbur Brown was a guest of Mrs. L. E. Lawrence Wednesday afternoon and evening.

A number from Tabasco attended services at this place Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Norman Quick and two sons were guests of Mrs. William J. Brown Tuesday.

Mrs. Margaret Carter, who has been spending several weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Carter, left on Wednesday for Kingston.

Mrs. L. E. Lawrence and Miss Emily Quick were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hornbeck Monday evening.

Dr. Harker of Kerhonkson was called to treat the three years old son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Brown on Monday. He has been suffering with a bad cold in his head.

Mrs. J. C. Snyder, Mrs. Margaret Carter and Mrs. L. E. Lawrence were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. Oscar Quick at Mombaccus Saturday.

Mrs. Abbie Krom of Worcester, Mass., spent a few days the past week with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Pernie Hornbeck and daughter visited Mrs. L. E. Lawrence on Sunday.

An oyster supper is being talked of. Watch for the date.

Mrs. J. O. Seiberg has returned from a visit with friends at Schenectady. Mrs. Seiberg and little daughter, Miss Josephine, will leave on Saturday to spend the winter in New York.

Miss Jennie DeWitt, who had a bad attack of tonsillitis last week, is better and able to attend school again.

Mrs. Margaret Lawrence spent Wednesday with Mrs. James Quick.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Quick, Jr. and Mrs. Leslie Quick motored to Walden and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Crawford on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Krom entertained an auto party from Shandaken Saturday and Sunday.

Eliza Miller of Krumville has purchased a horse from parties at Kerhonkson.

A number from this place will attend the auction at Mrs. D. Black's at Kerhonkson on Tuesday, October 31.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McDonald of Mombaccus were through this place last Saturday afternoon.

Paul Carley, our school teacher, is boarding with Mr. and Mrs. William Hornbeck.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Quick and family of Mombaccus are moving this week to Walden where Mr. Quick and sons have good positions.

At the knife works, Mr. and Mrs. Quick were former residents of this place and we all wish them good success in their new home.

Mrs. Mary DeWitt, who has been spending some time at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Reace Christianson at Krumville, was a week end guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. DeWitt and also spent Saturday with her sister, Mrs. Margaret Lawrence. Mrs. DeWitt is returning to Schenectady where she will make her home with her daughter for the winter.

Those who visited and called at the home of Mrs. Eliza C. DeWitt Saturday were Mrs. Simon Hornbeck and daughter, Miss Minnie, Mrs. Alex Brown, Mrs. Henry D. DeWitt, Mrs. Mary DeWitt and Mrs. Eugene Quick and daughter, Rosa.

D. J. Brown and children, Mrs. Agnes Brown and Miss Annie Latine visited with relatives at The Vly on Sunday.

Ralph Hornbeck has returned home from Massachusetts. All are pleased to see Ralph looking so well.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hinky will be housekeeping in the bungalow of Mrs. Seiberg for the winter.

J. M. Bernhart, insurance agent of High Falls, was in town Tuesday looking after policies.

May Be a Typhoid Carrier.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—Mrs. George M. Herriek, clubwoman and society leader of Englewood, will present herself at a hospital today for investigation to determine if she is a carrier of typhoid germs. A test of her blood in a search for the person who is believed to be responsible for 15 cases of typhoid among pupils of the Englewood High School, showed the only violent reaction among tests of 15 women who have conducted the school lunch room as a benefit for their club. Members of Mrs. Herriek's family scout the idea that she is a typhoid carrier. She faces isolation if such should prove to be the case.

ELEVEN LIVES LOST IN HOSPITAL FIRE

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Farnham, Quebec, Oct. 26.—At least eleven persons, five of them children, lost their lives in a fire which destroyed the St. Elizabeth Hospital here today, and from 15 to 25 persons are still unaccounted for, according to the latest estimates of the authorities. It is still impossible to search the blazing ruins.

More than 350 persons were asleep when the fire broke out. Their escape was cut off and nearly all jumped from the windows. Twenty-five children were badly injured in jumping from the third story windows.

SOCIETY NOTES.

Mrs. Margaret E. Wynn, of the Wyoming, 56th street and 7th avenue, New York formerly of this city announces the engagement of her daughter Margaret S., to Frank S. Tifford Jr. of New York. Miss Wynn is a graduate of New Paltz Normal. Mr. Tifford is a graduate of Yale and a member of many clubs.

A private masquerade party will be given by the Daughters of Isabella at Pythian Hall this evening. Mrs. Daniel J. Murphy, chairman of the committee on arrangements has prepared to have the guests entertained with some clever specialties. All members are invited to be present. Dancing will be enjoyed and refreshments appropriate to the occasion, will be served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of their long and faithful service in the church. Dr. Dadds responded fittingly and feelingly. After the formal exercises, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

A farewell reception was tendered to the Rev. Dr. R. C. Dadds and Mrs. Dadds by the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Elmendorf street, in the church parlors on Wednesday evening. On behalf of the congregation, Ford Homell presented Dr. and Mrs. Dadds with a purse of gold and a set of handsomely engraved resolutions expressing the appreciation of

Kingston Daily Freeman

TERMS:
Per Annum in advance.....$5.00
Per Month......50
The Cash Per Week.

Entered as Second-Class Matter at the post-office at Kingston, N. Y., May 1, 1895, under No. 100,000, Post Office No. 100,000.
Published by Freeman Publishing Company, 39 Broadway, Kingston, N. Y.
Jay E. Klock, President; Alfred Duffin, Secretary and Treasurer; Address 39 Broadway, Kingston, N. Y.
Klock, Vice-President, 25 Albany Avenue, Kingston, N. Y.

Member American Newspaper Publishers Association.
Member New York Associated Dailies.
Official paper of Kingston City.
Official paper of Ulster County.

Please address all communications and make all money orders and checks payable to Freeman Publishing Company, 39 Broadway.

Telephone Calls:
New York Telephone—Main Office, Downtown 1578. Optima Office, 832.

KINGSTON, N. Y., OCT. 26, 1916.

President Wilson's supporters are leaving no stone unturned to stir up racial feelings in the endeavor to promote the fortunes of the Democratic candidate. It is a dangerous weapon that is being employed even when manipulated by the adroit politicians now active in behalf of the Wilson administration. The hyphen is just as sharp at one end as at the other. The excesses of some extremists in the Teutonic camp are seized upon by press and platform agitators as evidence of a conspiracy against the president. Such efforts only serve to stir up resentment against the party whose campaigners are trying to make an issue out of race prejudice. And the resentment is not confined to German-Americans. Even those of the American people who are opposed to Germany's position in the world war look askance at the obviously insincere and unpatriotic propaganda that the Democratic National Committee is so assiduously fostering. Mr. Hughes, who has declared his sound conviction that a divided allegiance is a menace to American institutions, openly received and talked with Messrs. Cobalan and O'Leary, the same as he has done with numerous other groups of men anxious to ascertain his attitude. And what Mr. Hughes said to these men was said publicly. In sharp contrast is the secret mission of Postmaster General Burleson and Senator William J. Stone, the former a presidential appointee and the latter chairman of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations, who went to New York in order to open negotiations with Mr. Ridder and others in a bold attempt to capture the hyphenated vote by pledges of future action. The hypocrisy which pre-eminently distinguishes the Wilson campaign is thus played with startling clearness and there can be no disavowal. The Democrats as a matter of fact have doubled on the hyphen and overdone the issue in such a way as to disgust every fair-minded voter who dislikes racial or other prejudices being played upon for the purpose of catching votes.

Strangely enough the Democratic fear of an invisible and sinister influence due to the hyphen does not extend to the outrageous attitude of the railroad brotherhoods who, not content with swinging the blue-ribbon successfully on President Wilson and a Democratic Congress, are now attempting to terrorize the entire electorate. Assistant Grand Chief Frederick A. Burgess of the Brotherhood of Railroad Engineers, is quoted as follows:

If Hughes is elected and succeeds in repealing the law, a strike of railroad brotherhoods will be called that will tie up the country's transportation facilities in an unprecedented way.

If the intimidation practiced in putting through the Adamson act were not sufficient to awaken the American people to the impudence of these railroad conspirators, the Burgess declaration reveals the true nature of these threats which once carried out, would inflict untold suffering upon millions of innocent people solely to bring about a wage increase for a small minority well paid in comparison with wages paid labor generally. Mr. Hughes has not said that he would work to repeal this act, merely stating that "a surrender cannot be repeated." Besides the law will be judged in its operation two months before the date of inauguration. Notwithstanding that, a gratuitous threat of another hold-up of the government is issued by the railroad brotherhoods already committed to a campaign of intimidation and terror. If any one thing could be pointed out as clinching Mr. Hughes' assured victory at the polls, it is this exhibition of strong arm methods on the part of railroad men engaged in fulfilling their part of a nauseating deal with the Chief Magistrate.

An impressive idea of the extent of the gunpowder prosperity with which this country is now inundated, is gained from the net earnings of the nine leading express companies of the United States which aggregated $10,560,650 as compared with $2,556,212 the preceding year. This profit approximates 400 per cent and is the greatest on record according to the Interstate Commerce Commission from whose reports these figures were taken for the year ending June 30th last. As most of the munitions furnished for the Allies are rushed to the seaboard for shipment, the express business has here found a new and profitable source of revenue. It was not long ago that these same express companies were asserting that parcels post measures, enacted under a Republican administration by the way, would drive them into bankruptcy. Nothing was further from the truth as the reports of the companies have since demonstrated. In the munitions field the manufacturers and the carriers are reaping an enormous harvest as a result of the European war. The immensity of these profits has proved a temptation that Democratic spellbinders have been unable to resist in their claims of a general prosperity which every voter knows to be fictitious.

Daylight saving has come under the ban of Edward T. Pickering, director of Harvard College observatory, who styles the scheme a "trick to fool the ignorant" in the support of which not a single scientific society or other body with expert knowledge has taken action. Although England adopted the plan as a war measure, Lord Halford pronounced it the most absurd bill ever before Parliament. The danger that would follow adoption of the idea is pointed out by Mr. Pickering who harks back to 1883 when standard time was introduced on 100,000 miles of railroad. It was considered fortunate that there were no accidents resulting and this authority believes that with three times the mileage at present, the change of an hour twice a year would be most dangerous to railroad traffic, to say nothing of navigation. Citing the ensuing confusion as an unanswerable argument, Mr. Pickering concludes that the scheme's "principal value appears to be that we might deceive children so they would go to bed at 8 o'clock and think they were sitting up until 9." That is a fair statement of the case against daylight saving. In operation the idea is similar to that of having all places of business open an hour earlier during the day and leaving a corresponding period for recreation at the end. Early rising is a good thing but like many other innovations, a lot of virtues are claimed for this idea which would not be realized in its operation.

PORT EWEN.

Port Ewen, Oct. 26.—Leslie Munson and daughter, Jane Emma, of Kingston, were guests of Mr. Munson's mother, Mrs. S. W. Perrine, on Broadway, Wednesday.

Mid-week prayer and praise service this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Reformed and Methodist churches. All are invited to these services.

Walter Brannigan of Sleightsburgh has purchased a Ford car, 1917 model.

Mrs. James Dingman of Stockport is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Frederick Sleight, on Salem street.

Do not fail to attend the chicken supper and entertainment to be held in the Methodist Episcopal Church on Friday afternoon and evening. Supper served from 5:30 o'clock until all are served.

Mrs. Eugene A. Bookhout and Miss Mary F. Bishop, delegates of the Epworth League, attended the convention held at Phoenixia on Tuesday and Wednesday. They report a very interesting, instructive and helpful session.

On Friday evening, November 3, the Brotherhood of the Port Ewen Reformed Church will celebrate its second anniversary. The Rev. Joseph R. Sizoo of Wadsworth will deliver an address in the church auditorium beginning at 8 o'clock, to which the public is invited. Immediately after the address the Brotherhood will tender a reception to which the congregation is cordially invited. Admission will be free.

ARDONIA.

Ardonia, Oct. 26.—The Rev. J. W. Taylor preached in the M. E. Church on Sunday last.

Eber Palmer went fishing on Saturday to Black Pond and had the luck of catching five fish.

William Allen, who has been in for a long time, is so he can get around again.

Emma Palmer has her grapes nearly all packed; also her brother, Eber Palmer, has his.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott of Newburgh called on Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Mount Sunday last.

Richard Donohue of Gardiner, is passing through this place with very large loads of potatoes to Milton, where he receives $1.25 per bushel.

Eber Palmer, Jr., was very unfortunate to fall and hurt his arm a few days ago. He is so he can continue schooling again.

The Misses Edith, Gladys and Lucia Lane called on Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mackay of Tucker's Corners on Sunday afternoon.

John Howard has returned to Brooklyn, where he will spend the winter with his family. Henry Oliver has moved from his place to Clintondale to one of Mr. Howard's places and is to take charge of the place for the winter.

William Sherman has begun to move some of his things to his new place, which he bought of Robert Tombs.

Jack Frost has been calling around quite often for a few weeks.

New Engineer of Maintenance.

Warren C. Heidenthal has been transferred from the position of roadmaster for the New York & W. Railroad on the Scranton division, to be headquarter at Mayfield yard, to be engineer of maintenance of way with headquarters at Middle town.

LITTLE LAUGHS.

Consultant—"Don't you enjoy good health, madame?" Consultant—"I certainly do, doctor. I only wish I had some of it!"—Judge.

Wife (during the spat)—"I wasn't anxious to marry you. I refused you six times." Hub—"Yes, and then my luck gave out."—Boston Transcript.

"Ma, tigers can't bite people when they don't see 'em, can they?" "What on earth do you mean, child?" "I heard pa tell Mr. Smith he was going to find a blind tiger."—Baltimore American.

"I ordered some flowers sent to Miss Redbud and I'll be hanged if the florist didn't send them C. O. D." "Phew! Did she pay for them?" "She did, and now, deuce take it, I've got to pay her."—Boston Transcript.

"Do you always keep the promises you make before election?" "Well," replied Senator Sorghum, "I do my best. If I can't keep them I am willing to make them over again as often as may be desired."—Washington Star.

The Real One.

A lady employing a colored man asked him his name.

"Ma name is Poe, ma'am."

"Poe? Perhaps some of your family worked for Edgar Allen Poe?"

The man's eyes opened with great surprise. "Why," he gasped, pointing a dusky forefinger to himself, "Why, Ah am Edgar Allen Poe!"—Everybody's Magazine.

The Real Reason.

The last time Mr. Howells was in London, a well known English novelist called to see him. In the course of conversation the caller's books were mentioned, and their wide sales, and he began to fish for compliments.

"I grow richer and richer," he said, shaking his head sadly, "but all the same I think my work is falling off. My new work is not so good as my old."

"Oh, nonsense," said Mr. Howells cheerfully. "You write as badly as ever you did, my boy. It only means that your literary taste is improving, that's all."—All Around Magazine.

The Reason Why.

A certain minister used to supply occasionally for a congregation which had no regular pastor. When he came he boarded around. He found a ready welcome, for he was genial and full of jokes. But somehow he usually seemed to leave the joke on someone else rather than on himself. Because of this, one hostess once approached with this question: "Dr. G., can you tell me why it is that minister's children are nearly always so bad?" "Well," the doctor replied meditatively, "I'm sure I don't know, Mrs. Mac, unless it comes through association with the congregation."—The Christian Herald.

Recalling Old Times.

The late Sir Robert Ball, the famous astronomer, a keen humorist, was never loath to recount a joke at his own expense. He was dining with some friends at Stratford, and on the bill being presented he said to the landlady:

"Madam, I am going to give you a lesson in astronomy. In 25,000,000 years all things must return to their original condition. We shall all be here again eating a dinner precisely identical. Will you give us credit until we come back?"

"Well," replied the landlady, "you were here 25,000,000 years ago and you left without paying the bill then. Settle that account and I will trust you for what you have had today."—London Tit-Bits.

STONE RIDGE.

Stone Ridge, Oct. 26.—Miss Laura Onslow has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Milton Elmendorf.

Mrs. John Ballard has been spending a few days in Kingston.

Sally Luck's inn will close in the near future.

Mrs. Francis H. Leggett presented a piano to the Grange Hall.

Teachers' training and study class will meet at the Reformed parsonage every Monday evening.

Christian Endeavor business meeting on Thursday evening after prayer meeting. All members please try to attend as business of importance must be decided at this meeting.

Egbert Elmendorf has a new horse.

Mrs. Oscar Hornbeck is around on crutches.

There will be another of the popular dances held in the Grange Hall, Stone Ridge, on Monday evening, October 30. All those who have attended any of the dances held at this hall know what an ideal combination Miller's music and the beautiful floor of the Grange Hall present to all those who enjoy dancing. As for those who have never attended any of the dances it is sufficient to say, "Come and see" for those who come will be sure to come again.

These dances are held for the benefit of Stone Ridge Grange and the Grange committee try in every way to make them enjoyable for all those who attend. Ice cream and cake, sandwiches and coffee and soft drinks are for sale at reasonable prices up stairs in hall.

TWENTY AND TEN YEARS AGO.

October 26, 1896—Alexander Aaron, formerly of Rondout, died in New York.

Senator Lexow addressed a McKinley and Hart meeting at the Academy of Music.

Fair of Excelsior Hose Company opened at engine house on Harley avenue.

James E. Holt, 4 years old, of Port Ewen, had his finger cut off in a mysterious manner.

October 26, 1906—Carl G. Fischer purchased a plot of ground in the rear of his hotel on the Strand.

L. A. Van Zandt's barn on the Sawkill road burned with a loss of $5,000.

Retail milk dealers of Kingston decided to raise price of milk from 6 to 7 cents per quart.

Burton Aie, Smith's Genuine, James A. Phelan, Advertisement.

ROUSING RECEPTION GIVEN SPEAKERS

(Continued from Page 1.)

has put someone else on earth beside yourself."

The speaker then went on to Mr. Bryan's fitness for the post citing his career and his issues from the time 16 to one was buried in about that same ratio down to imperialism, which he styled "plain bunk," and government ownership of railroads.

Those Bryan Traitors.

"All these had failed," he declared, "no when Mr. Bryan became secretary of state the first thing he said was 'I'll be for peace.' That's what everybody wants of course. It was just the same as though you told people that you were in favor of food as a means to sustain the body. It went on to state that while he was in charge of the state department there would be no war.

"As a result he entered into thirty treaties with as many nations in which we contracted that no matter what insult was offered to us, we would do nothing for twelve months. After that we would do nothing but talk and after that we will arbitrate if we can find anybody before whom we can arbitrate. Now nobody wants to fight us but if they do they can put a gunboat in New York harbor and we're under contract not to fire."

"Of course, we would hold them to strict accountability. That means that we would remember it always and if anything happened in the future that they said anything about us we would call that to their mind. That's all there is to war and Woodrow Wilson knows it. His saying he has kept us out of war is an insult to the intelligence of the American people.

"The Republican party, regardless of what the Democrats say, won't get us into war. If they get in power there'll be a navy and an army big enough to stop any war before it happens."

Job Quotes Scripture.

Judge Hedges was frequently interrupted by applause and his audience broke into merriment again and again at his sallies yet at the same time there was the typical serious undercurrent which flowed beneath the surface of every jest. He said that he had been reading the Book of Proverbs and quoted the verse: "Where there is no vision the people perish." He moralized on this and declared that today the United States sets itself as never before reflected in the flames of Europe, a nation it is true, but one without the unity of people and sentiment which is yet to come. It is the mission of the republican party, he said, to bring about this unity, which he declared was what President Wilson is trying to break down.

Wilson's Mexican Course.

The speaker indignantly touched upon the Mexican situation and the Democratic claims that a new man would not know how to handle things down there. Mr. Hughes, he declared, will handle Mexico if he is elected and most satisfactorily because of his habit of getting at the facts before taking action. He declared that the president had forgotten, if he ever knew, that Monroe ever existed and that the Monroe doctrine was a dead letter in the administration.

"Nations make contracts with one another," he said, "but President Wilson has overlooked that fact. He has treated the heads of nations as contractors instead. He sent word to Mexico, not by the United States ambassador, but by a private messenger, that we are not interested in Mexico save in behalf of the Mexican people."

He then cited the wanton slaughter of Americans and said that more are being killed there every day than are reported in the public prints. The million and a half dollars that the maintenance of an armed force on the border and a punitive expedition into Mexico was also pointed out as glittering examples of a Mexican policy.

"I want to be a part of a government that insists that an American can live in safety wherever he goes (prolonged applause) so long as he behaved himself and obeys the laws of the country he is in! Here the applause again interrupted the speaker.

"Instead of that our government gave a notice to Americans to get out of Mexico and then furnished the Mexicans with guns so that they could use them on Americans. And Bryan when asked for protection for our citizens said: 'We can't give it to you because you are interested.' Don't think for a moment that when the war is over but that Germany, England and France won't be in Mexico within 30 days to find out what has happened to their people."

Our Financial Place.

Judge Hedges pointed to the Republican party as being responsible for America's financial position in the world finance today. The five hundred million dollar loan to the Allies could not have been made unless our finances were on a solid basis, he said, and pointed out that this was accomplished by the Republicans in 1896 aided by some Democrats, "and I take my hat off to some of them," he said.

Prosperity claims of the Democrats were ridiculed by the speaker, who in commenting upon European conditions declared that when the Democrats took credit for "prosperity" they had to admit that it requires a war to help out a Democratic congress. He attacked the war tax measures and the Underwood act, he asserted, reduced the duty on manufactured articles and raised the duty on raw materials, thus setting the industries of this country both ways.

The result of the first ten months' operation of the law was an overwhelming defeat to meet which the Democrats raised a hue and cry about the dangers of war and then put over a war tax to make ends meet in the treasury.

War, God-send to Wilson.

"The war was a God-send to the Democratic party," said the speaker, "but after the war there is coming a condition the manufacturers of this country never had to face before. Our manufacturers will then be competing with European manufacturers plus their government. This practice about our power because of our being prosperous is inevitable. It is like telling a patient ill with fever that he has been enough in his system to save him from putting any coal in the cellar of his home."

On the labor question, Judge Hedges declared that the easiest crowd in the world to bunk are the laboring people. He traced labor organizations and their clashes with capital and declared that never, until a few weeks ago, had either sought or secured special legislation. Just a few weeks ago, he said, four great organizations said: "We shall have so and so of the country's transportation business will stop." Their leaders are brilliant, clever men and they played it well and they went to it because they knew the man they went to was more worried over the votes he was going to get than over the danger of class legislation—and they got it. Yet the organizations lost something more precious than what they gained. The strong argument of labor up to that time had been that this government shall never legislate for a class. That argument has been a great thing in this country and an appeal to stability in our institutions. Labor has now robbed itself of the right of protest.

Railroad Men Bunked.

"To go into what they actually got in this legislation; they merely got what everybody gets who goes up against Woodrow Wilson—rhetoric. And the admission that the sanction of society rests on the eight hour day but for the rest they got bunk."

The speaker asked laboring men in audience how they were going to answer this frenzied appeal of the Democratic party when they went into the voting booth each alone with his conscience. He demanded of them if they wanted the statute books like a crazy quilt of class legislation in the interests of this or that favored group.

"And whatever the virtues of the Adamson act," he declared, "you have won nothing if there is nothing to work at."

Daniels as a Sense of Humor.

Judge Hedges made a few thrusts at the Wilson administration, refuting the charge that the president has no sense of humor. "Josephus Daniels as Secretary of the Navy is Woodrow Wilson's sense of humor, he declared and the crowd rocked with laughter. He said that when the president got a good man like Garrison, he resigned, so it was with Bryan, only the latter saw it coming.

The fundamental difficulty with President Wilson, who he said was a lawyer as well as a schoolmaster was that the arrived at a conclusion first and then took the testimony. Hughes was the opposite, he said, in first taking testimony and reaching his conclusions thereon. He referred to the president coming out as a champion of the common people but first he took the precaution of applying to the Carnegie Foundation for a pension.

Wilson's Many Shifts.

He then reviewed the shifts in the president's policy, saying that no man could find a single issue before him. Wilson in his administration upon which his final attitude was the same as his original declaration. He showed how the President has departed from traditional Democratic doctrine of state sovereignty, how he has changed from free trade protection to the power of a tariff Commission as against those of congress, on civil service reform and upon labor.

How the President had told the Mexican people that they couldn't have a president who did not measure up to our standards, was cited as another glittering failure of the administration course in interfering with a people incapable of self-government; a republic of 15,000,000 people of whom all but a million and a half are illiterate and admit their incapacity for self-government.

In closing, Judge Hedges declared it his belief that all Republicans are not saints and that all that the Republican party had done has not been perfect; also that all of the Democrats are not crooks and failures in governing but that by and large, the character of the legislation passed by Republican administrations was ahead of anything that had been accomplished along similar lines by the opposing party.

American's Greatest Sin.

"The greatest crime in this country today," he said, "is not larceny but everyday hypocrisy and political indifference. And he urged the use of his hearers to distinguish between the false and the true that as good Americans we may have a sanctified regeneration and a re-birth in our common country."

Prolonged applause greeted Judge Hedges' conclusion and a number of those on the platform crowded about the speaker extending congratulations. The band struck up "The Battle Cry of Freedom" and the audience filed out slowly while many enthusiastic comments were exchanged on the speech and speaker of the evening.

TILLSON.

Tillson, Oct. 25.—At the afternoon service in the Dashville Reformed Church, October 22, Rev. Joseph Millett, baptized fifteen children. A good congregation was present.

At the parsonage October 19, Rev. Joseph Millett united holy wedlock Paul B. Bailey of New Paltz and Miss Lena B. Eckert of Rifton.

Much sympathy is felt by the people of Tillson for Mrs. LeFever, the mother and Simon P. LeFever, the grandfather of Earl LeFever, who died on Sunday morning. The interment was Monday in New Paltz cemetery. Earl will be greatly missed in home and community. He had a host of friends.

There will be no Sunday school in the Springtown Chapel, but preaching service will be held at 2:30 o'clock. All adults are cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Nina Christiana has moved in the house recently purchased by Mr. Klein of Asbury Park, N. J., into the Decker home.

John Callagher, our popular horseman, has reconstructed part of the race track. We expect to see some fine trotting in the future.

Miss Eva Freer, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Jacob Lewis, to her nights this week.

Alaska Standard Copper Mining Co.
A developed mine with over 100,000 tons of ore in sight.
Situated on a water harbor open for navigation the year round.
The company and its equipment are for sale or lease.
Prior to commencement of shipment, a limited amount of treasury stock is offered at $25.00 per share.
Applications for stock, accompanied by remittance must be made to:
M. L. HEWITT & CO., Inc.
115 Broadway, New York
Copy of Engineer's report sent on request.

home in Poughkeepsie on Monday. George and Mrs. Smith of Kingston spent the week end at the parsonage.

William B. Snyder, the chicken king, is adding another building to his group of homes. This one is for raising purposes.

Jerry Keator and Mrs. Keator moved to Kingston last Monday. We are sorry to lose them from our church and village.

Mrs. Mary Craig is visiting friends in Poughkeepsie and vicinity.

Miss Ethel Clark is home from Connolly, where she spent some time nursing Mrs. Vogt.

DUREKA.

Dureka, Oct. 25.—Mrs. Elwin Moore of Woodbourne returned home Friday after visiting her relatives at Red Hill, Claryville, Sunday and Dureka.

Mrs. George Kortright died at her home Friday at 1 o'clock. She is survived by her husband and three daughters and four sons.

Clarence Sheeley sawed wood for Sylvester Porter Friday with his gasoline engine.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hurst and two small children are staying with Mrs. Hughton's parents as her health is very poorly.

Mrs. Walden Van Wagener and Mrs. Euphratus Smith called on Mrs. Lee Dayton Friday. Mrs. Dayton is seriously ill at the home of her parents. We all hope for a speedy recovery.

Misses Lula and Beatrice Carille are ill.

Will Ackerly, who has been employed at Sylvester Porter's, has returned to his son's on Thunder Hill. Mrs. Mahlon Donivan and Edna Kelder spent Sunday with Mrs. Samuel Donivan.

Elwin Moore and Guy Doland of Woodbourne returned here Friday and spent the day in the mountains hunting squirrels and rabbits, and took dinner at the Rocky Mountain Farm House. Come again, boys, for game is plenty as it runs.

James B. Smith purchased two cows of Garret Van Wagener last week.

Mrs. Rachel Hornbeck has gone to visit her sister.

Two auto parties from Liberty spent part of the day Sunday hunting chestnuts and viewing the scenery from Rocky Mountain. Archie Armstrong and mother were the leaders, as the farm now owned by M. Donivan is Mrs. Armstrong's old homestead.

Lanesville, Oct. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. George Ruoff called to Lanesville one day last week to see Mr. Ruoff's brother, who was very ill, but is slowly improving.

Mrs. S. Weeks returned to her home in Kingston, after spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. C. Harrington.

C. R. Lane and daughter, also Miss Lucy Hale and Mrs. Buckridge and Harry Smith as chauffeur, motored to Kingston on Saturday.

The Kitchner and Tappen Cottages have been closed for the winter and the people returned to their respective homes in the city.

Miss Florence Souder of Fleischmann's is visiting Miss Frances Maginnis at Pleasant View House for a few days.

Messrs. H. D. and H. S. Lane were Kingston business callers Tuesday.

Mrs. Thomas Jansen and children visited relatives in Bushnellville on Saturday last.

A business meeting for the Ladies' Aid Society was held at the M. E. Church on Thursday afternoon.

WHITFIELD.

Whitfield, Oct. 25.—Miss Della Van Vleet and Miss Hilda Chambers were pleasantly entertained on Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hornbeck.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Enderly and daughter, Verna, spent Sunday with relatives at Kerhonkson.

Mrs. Della Davis is spending the week with Mrs. Charles Anderson.

Mrs. Simon Hornbeck and daughter spent the week end with relatives at Lehigh.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Christiana of Kyrie spent last Saturday touring the Catskills, making the trip by way of Pine Hill, Margaretville, Roxbury and Grand Forge and returning home by way of Prattsville, Lexington, thence through the notch to Shandaken. The trip was made in the car, covering a hundred miles of road without any accidents.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stokes and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rosenkrantz enjoyed a drive on Sunday.

A GOOD PLAN

See us when you want a monument. The class of work we do and the prices we ask cannot help but appeal to you. Innumerable semi-finished stones always on hand. Designs and estimates submitted for special work.

BYRNE BROS
NY PHONE PALMER BOWAY & HENRY ST MONUMENT WORKS

FORSYTH & DAVIS

307 Wall St. Phone 708

Special Sale

20 Per Cent Discount

—ON—

BRASS GOODS, Library Sets, Candle Sticks, Ash Trays, Match Holders, Book Ends, etc., etc. Also, LEATHER GOODS, Ladies' Hand-Bags, Purses, Card Cases, Wallets, Change Purses, etc., etc.

This sale is for a few days only to make room for the holiday stock to arrive soon.

Splendid bargains for those who are looking for practical Christmas gifts.

Music Studios

J. MOLLOTT

H. MAISENHEDER

PRIVATE AND CLASS LESSONS

Violin, Piano, Mandolin, Flute, Cello, Clarinet

BY TERM OR LESSON

MAISENHEDER'S ORCHESTRA

Music for all occasions. J. Mollott, Sec. and Treas.

Telephone 189-J Weisburg Building
271 FAIR STREET

WHEW!

But the cold winter winds are coming. Put in the broken glass. We carry any size you wish, large or small.

ROOF PAINT

Winter will rot tin. Get busy now. This is the best month to paint your house. No flies, no dust. Devoe's paint carries a genuine make good guarantee.

M. H. HERZOG

Wall Street Next to Court House

STREET GOSSIP ABOUT TOWN

The Sinking of the White Fox—It was a windy day and the waves dashed high and the crew of the staunch little White Fox strove gallantly to reach the shore and beach the craft before it was overwhelmed by the dashing billows. Suddenly a huge wave swept toward the gallant craft and with a lingering gasp the boat shuddered and sunk with its crew aboard, and all of the provisions and bait on the boat was lost.

This sad tragedy occurred but a brief period of time ago, but it still lingers long in the memory of the gallant crew who rescued themselves by swimming to the nearby beach. But to get back to the beginning, as should be done in all cases whether thrilling or otherwise, two local men, both ardent fishermen and relentless pursuers of the speckled or spotted beauties, chipped in together and purchased a row boat at a nearby hamlet.

The boat was safely brought to town and placed in a nearby cellar and during their spare moments the fishermen with right good will piled paint and brush and by and by the job was completed. The boat was a dream. It was pure snow white with green trimmings. All it lacked was a name, and it was only christened according to the latest rules in christening boats, the White Fox.

Now that the boat was completed and ready to be launched the question arose where should the gala occasion be held. With maps in hand and statistics galore scattered about them the two fishermen pored and pondered over the question of where the best fishing would be found. Finally both agreed upon a spot not many miles from Kingston.

Another friend was called into consultation and agreed to carry the boat to the designated sheet of water provided he was given a mess of fish, once in a while, and also the privilege of going out with the brave crew when they set out to run the speckled, or was it spotted, beauties to their lair. It was agreed.

The neighboring friend ran his auto truck around to the cellar door one day and the boat was carefully placed aboard and the start to the sheet of water, which shall be unnamed, began. The arrival was made safely and the boat was safely launched.

The scene now shifts ahead a few days when the proud owners of the gallant craft found time from their business affairs to plan a fishing expedition. They gathered together much bait and fishing tackle and started for the sheet of water. They reached the sheet of water and found their little craft all ready for them.

They boarded the White Fox and trimmed sail—excuse us—the took up the oars and started to row out to a spot where they thought the fish lurked. While underway a mighty wind arose and it rocked the boat, and apprehension was felt that the bait would suddenly roll overboard. Still nothing daunted they proceeded on to the designated spot.

They would have reached the fishing grounds safely but—of course a "but" always intervenes—the wind stirred up some nifty sized rollers and before the gallant crew could head the White Fox bow onward to the wave a mighty roller swept over the side of the boat and it capsize.

At least that is how the fishermen tell the tale of their thrilling wreck, but kind friends hint they loaded too much bait on one side of the craft and made it rather topheavy. Be that as it is. After the roller had rolled aboard the White Fox sunk and the gallant crew strewn into the water came to the top gasping and with powerful strokes struck out for the nearby shore.

They reached it safely, but wet through and shivering from the cold air their plight was not one to be envied. Luckily a "phone" was nearby and help from the city came to their rescue, and they returned home.

They later hired a man to raise their gallant craft from the muddy bottom on which it reposed. They expect to make another fishing trip in the nearby future, but will be careful how they place the ballast.

COTTICKILL

Cottickill, Oct. 26.—The Ontario and Western pay car passed through this village on Tuesday.

The salesagent of the Metz auto of Utica was in this village on Monday last with a new 1917 Metz.

J. A. Keator has again resumed his duties at High Falls station.

James Lyons of Rosendale visited the Reformed Sunday school on Sunday.

Only two weeks more before election, so the politicians are quite busy.

L. R. Conner, who has been spending a few days at Jersey, Pa., has again resumed his duties. He was relieved during his absence by J. A. Keator.

W. F. Ruppert, the new proprietor of the Echo Lodge, took possession today. This is the large boarding house recently owned and maintained by Charles Bishop.

Elmer Barringer of Gardiner is spending some time with his parents here.

Mrs. Styles spent Friday at Kingston.

Mrs. Oscar Rider and Mrs. Windrum spent Tuesday at High Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cox of Poughkeepsie spent Sunday with relatives here.

Mrs. Fred Gillespie spent Wednesday at Kingston.

Mrs. Andrew Pine, daughter Verma and son Walter, spent one day the past week at Kingston.

Mrs. Andrew Middaugh of Kingston spent the week end with her daughter here, Mrs. Henry Keator.

John Sheeley spent Friday at Kingston.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Short of Springfield, Mass., are spending their vacation with the former's parents here.

Miss Anna Short of Port Ewen spent Saturday and Sunday at her home here.

Mrs. Lizzie Jones of Lake Mohonk spent Sunday at her home here.

G. H. Krom and daughter, Birdell, spent Sunday at Kingston.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bishop spent one day recently at Kingston.

R. B. Walker spent Saturday at Kingston.

Robert Stall spent Sunday at Kingston.

Mrs. Uriah Barringer spent Wednesday at Kingston.

MONBACCUS HEIGHTS.

Monbaccus Heights, Oct. 26.—Mrs. Frank McDermott of Newburgh is spending two weeks with relatives in this place.

The social at the Reformed Chapel on Saturday evening was a decided success in every way. A number of out of town people were present, including Mr. and Mrs. Norman Osterhout and children of Briar Cliff, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schoonmaker, Mr. Carley, teacher at Leibhardt, Mrs. Frank McDermott of Newburgh, and several from Leibhardt, Tabasco and other places, besides the young people who are home spending their vacation.

William Beesemer and Harold Van Effen visited the Shokan dam on their bicycles on Sunday.

Eula Hornbeck, who has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Harriet Morehouse, returned to the home of her aunt at Pataunkunk, Sunday.

The Misses Josie and Emily Van Effen entertained visitors on Sunday evening.

Charles Hartellus is doing some carpenter work for Solomon Utruff.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith, who have been recently married, and Arthur Smith are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abram Smith.

Percy Green, who is employed on the West Shore railroad, spent a few days last week at his home in this place.

Miss Josie Van Effen arrived home from Caldwell last week.

All were pleased to see such a good attendance at preaching service at the Reformed Chapel Sunday afternoon.

A serenade was given Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith on Monday night by a large number of men and boys from this place and Tabasco, with a big collection of musical instruments, such as cow bells, guns, tin pans, horns, etc. After the musical part of the program was over they were all invited in and refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith and brothers, Henry and Howard, are planning an auto trip to Greater New York and New Jersey this week, weather permitting.

KRUMVILLE.

Krumville, Oct. 26.—Service and Sunday school were both well attended Sunday. The congregation met Sunday evening to organize a Christian Endeavor Society. The meeting was very successfully attended. There will be meeting every Sunday evening, Sunday evening, October 29, the Rev. T. A. Beekman will give the service.

Mrs. William Seiple and little daughter, Neoma, of Mt. Marion, are spending a few days with Mrs.

Seiple's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eliza Merrihew.

Mrs. Jane Green of Lyonsville is visiting her many friends in this place.

Mrs. Joanna Van Kleeck and little nephew, Arthur, of Kingston, are spending a week at Frank Lyons's.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Merrihew entertained company from Kingston Sunday.

Ethel Davis spent Sunday with Beulah DuBois.

Mrs. Ezra Merrihew expects to leave this place soon, to accompany her husband, who has employment at Port Ewen. They will be greatly missed by the people in this place.

Chester Lyons has rented Ezra Merrihew's store. He expects to open Saturday, October 28, with a full line of general merchandise.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davis of Whitfield spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Christiansa.

Mrs. Ezra Merrihew and three sons, Loyal, Francis and Wilson, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Merrihew.

Floyd Kelder of Napanoch and Miss Joanna Embree and Miss Elthea

This Store Will Remain Closed

Thursday and Friday

Out of respect to the memory of our beloved

"Bob" Mac Fadden

Eldest son of the President—

Grandson of the Founder of

VAN WAGENEN'S

Lyons of this place called at Egbert Merrihew.

Mrs. Jane Green of Lyonsville is visiting her many friends in this place.

Mrs. Joanna Van Kleeck and little nephew, Arthur, of Kingston, are spending a week at Frank Lyons's.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Merrihew entertained company from Kingston Sunday.

Ethel Davis spent Sunday with Beulah DuBois.

Mrs. Ezra Merrihew expects to leave this place soon, to accompany her husband, who has employment at Port Ewen. They will be greatly missed by the people in this place.

Chester Lyons has rented Ezra Merrihew's store. He expects to open Saturday, October 28, with a full line of general merchandise.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davis of Whitfield spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Christiansa.

Mrs. Ezra Merrihew and three sons, Loyal, Francis and Wilson, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Merrihew.

Floyd Kelder of Napanoch and Miss Joanna Embree and Miss Elthea

able for this time of the year. Mr. Bardin believes in spraying his fruit trees, which accounts for him having so many nice peaches this year.

Moses E. Oakley spent Wednesday last in Kingston.

ACORN HILL.

Acorn Hill, Oct. 26.—The Rev. Mr. Thompson of Tongore will occupy the pulpit of the W. M. Church Sunday next, October 29. Services will be held at the usual hour, 3 o'clock, p. m. A good congregation is hoped will be present.

Mrs. Cornelia Krom, who has been spending the summer with her daughter at Irvington, is now spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. William Oakley, of this place.

E. Merrihew is busily engaged in building an addition to his house, Horace Dymond is the carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams of New York city spent a few days the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Sheldon.

The Rev. W. N. Abare will preach at Samsonville Sunday next, occupying pulpits with the Rev. Mr. Thompson.

Otis Bardin has a tree loaded with fine large peaches which is remarkable for this time of the year. Mr. Bardin believes in spraying his fruit trees, which accounts for him having so many nice peaches this year.

Moses E. Oakley spent Wednesday last in Kingston.

GLENFORD.

Glenford, Oct. 26.—There is to be a temperance lecture in the Glenford Hall Thursday evening.

Walter Ostrander of the firm of Ostrander & Woolsey has his new bungalow about completed. It is situated on a parcel of land purchased of Thomas Clancy and affords a fine view of the reservoir.

Minster Roscoe Moore and sister, Viola, spent Sunday at their home here.

P. Holmes of New Jersey, who has been visiting his son, Luther, for a few days, returned to New Jersey on Tuesday.

Justin Van Vleet of Kingston was guest of Roscoe and Sherman Moore Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stekler and daughters were in Kingston Saturday.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT.

$12,575,000,000.00!

This amount represents the total assessed valuation of real property in New York State as estimated for 1916

It gives some idea of the importance of your State Tax Department—another State Department that has made an enviable record during the past two years under the leadership of Governor Charles S. Whitman.

The record for economical and efficient management of your Tax Department will be of interest to you as a tax payer:

What Governor Whitman Found January 1st, 1915!

THERE was no working organization worthy of the name. Offices were crowded with unnecessary and useless employees whose salaries added greatly to the expense of the department but whose work will be looked for in vain by those who believe that the State should receive a day's work for a day's pay.

Important decisions in various cases had not been made, with the result that the State and localities were deprived of hundreds of thousands of dollars in taxes which were justly and legally due.

Defective reports were received and hidden in out-of-the-way places, only to be discovered by chance months later.

Important letters were unanswered.

Altogether the situation was one of confusion, inefficiency and general demoralization.

A Few Results of More Efficient Management

GOVERNOR WHITMAN recommended legislation for reorganizing of the old Tax Commission and the present Commission appointed by him took office the 15th of April, 1915.

As a first step toward putting the tax work of the State upon a proper basis, the Commission changed the structure of the administration and perfected an organization fitted to do the work in an economical and effective manner, purged the payroll of all unnecessary and expensive employees and created a real working force with which to conduct the tax business of the State.

This Commission has brought up to date the work of examinations of the offices of county clerks, which had been allowed to fall behind for the previous four years.

It has prosecuted disputed cases, bringing to the State in fees over $125,000 in the first year of its existence as a commission.

It has added over $65,000,000 to the assessments on special franchises and has built up a co-operation with local tax officials which has resulted in vast and fair advances and equalizations of assessments in every municipality of the State.

The department makes regular quarterly reports to the governor of its administrative operations, and disorder and demoralization have given way to co-ordination and efficiency.

This is just one more example of the economical and efficient management of the State's business that has been accomplished during the past two years by the administration that has put ECONOMY and EFFICIENCY FIRST!

Governor Whitman and his associates DESERVE YOUR SUPPORT at the polls no matter what your "politics" may be

Vote the Entire Republican Ticket for Local, State and National Efficiency

We are now offering for shipment IN CAR LOTS

POTATOES

Cream of Delaware County

CORNELL & DECKER

Wire or Write

Stamford, N. Y.

YOUR PIANO

THE SAME AS CASH

A Most Liberal Offer

If you wish to purchase a new Piano or Player Piano, we will allow you full cash value for your old instrument in exchange. We will take your Piano as the first payment and balance can be paid in small weekly or monthly installments to suit you.

THE HARDMAN
HARRINGTON
HENSEL

HARDMAN AUTOTONE
PLAYOTONE AND OTHERS

New Pianos $250 up
New Player Pianos $375 up
REICHARD MUSIC CO.

SUPREME IN SERVICE

273 Fair St.

Kingston, N. Y.

Open Evenings

VERDICT OF $500 FOR "HONEYBUNCH"

Mrs. Catherine Pohlman was awarded a verdict of $500 in her breach of promise suit against Isaac M. Smith of Mt. Marion this morning when the jury reported. Mrs. Pohlman sued for $5,000, claiming that Mr. Smith had asked her to be his wife and on that theory she had come to Mt. Marion to live at his home, leaving a boarding house in Brooklyn where she had made her living for herself and four children. Mr. Smith did not marry her and later had her removed from the house.

Mr. Smith on the witness stand on Wednesday afternoon told how he had asked her to come to Mt. Marion in November to conduct a boarding house but according to one of the letters which he wrote and sent to her in Brooklyn she was to come to the country and become the "star boarder."

Mr. Canfield, who appeared for Mr. Smith, moved for a new trial and that the verdict be set aside. This the court denied. A plea on behalf of his client on the ground that he had no money to pay the judgment, having lavished his small fortune of $3,000 upon the plaintiff, was also made by the defendant's counsel. George Kaufman appeared for Mrs. Pohlman.

After appearing in court to press the case of Samuel Preleigh against the First National Bank of Saugerties an action to recover on a protested note, the attorneys in the case retired for five minutes by permission of the court and during that time effected a settlement of the claim. Jenkins & Shufeldt appeared for the plaintiff and F. E. W. Darrow for the bank.

An action to recover for triple damages was brought by Abel B.

Abraham against A. H. Chambers and Kenneth Archer. The action is to recover damages to an automobile owned by the plaintiff which was stored in the garage of Mr. Chambers. The car while in the garage it is claimed was tampered with and damaged to the extent of $70 which added to $84 storage charges brought the amount up to $154. The plaintiff claims that under the direction of the defendant, Charles E. Snyder altered the mechanism of the car, an E. M. F. valued at $125, in such a manner that it would not run. N. Frank O'Reilly with William H. Grogan appear for the plaintiff and Frank W. Brooks with Virgil Van Wageningen of counsel appear for the defendants.

Poughkeepsie Church Supper.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Poughkeepsie Union Church are bending their best efforts towards the successful culmination of their chicken pie supper and fair to be held from 4 p. m. to 8 p. m. on Wednesday, November 1. The fair will open at 4 o'clock and the supper will be served at 5 o'clock. A high record of achievement has already been established in this line by the ladies and all who attend are assured a most appetizing supper, an enjoyable evening and a royal welcome. "What one will miss by non-attendance can be foreseen and adjudged, but the good eats and good time one will gain by being present is inestimable," said one who attended the supper and fair last year.

Poughkeepsie Pays Well.

Poughkeepsie's Chamber of Commerce has picked as its new secretary an assistant secretary of the Rochester Chamber of Commerce. The candidate's name is withheld to serve his convenience. The salary to be paid is $4,500. The new secretary is 42 years of age and much of his career has been as a newspaper man.

Voice of The People.

Poughkeepsie aldermen, after hearing from taxpayers, are planning to cut $30,000 from the budget estimated of $550,000.

SOCIAL SERVICE BUREAU NEEDS

Housecleaning in the fall brings to the notice of many good housekeepers old quilts and blankets not quite fresh enough for family use, but so warm and comfortable that it would be a pity to pack them away unused in the attic.

How happy these would make some poor family whose dread of the coming winter is increased by the knowledge of the high price of coal and the insufficiency of bed clothing.

Mrs. Mac Millan, of the Bureau of Social Service, will be glad to receive gifts of bedding at her office in the Municipal Building on O'Reilly street, and will see that such gifts reach the people who need them most.

Children's clothing and children's shoes are also in great demand just now, and women's clothing is always acceptable.

The price of food is now so high that in families where there are many mouths to feed it is almost impossible for the bread winner to buy sufficient clothing for all.

Mothers who read this, you whose little ones have plenty to eat and to wear, help some other mother to keep her children warm this winter by sending the little outgrown garments to Mrs. Mac Millan for distribution.

Clothing for any age is acceptable, babies' things, boy's suits, girl's dresses, and above all, shoes, shoes, shoes.

Spencer's Business School.

The following students and graduates of Spencer's Business School have recently been placed in good business positions with leading employers:

Miss Mary Neal, a graduate of the stenographic department, has secured a position as law stenographer in the office of William H. Montgomery, Attorney and Counsellor at Law, Red Hook, N. Y.

Miss Jennie Sparling, of the combined course, has obtained a permanent position as bookkeeper and office assistant with the Eagle Garage, Main street, this city.

Virgil Bundy of the stenographic department has secured a good situation with the Prudential Insurance Company, Bayonne, N. J.

Ernest Lyons, an experienced operator, has secured a position as ticket agent and operator at South Fallsburg, N. Y., N. Y. O. & W. R. R. Large numbers of new pupils have registered at Spencer's this year. More than 100 students have enrolled in the different departments since Sept. 5th. Scores of others have made arrangements to begin during the next few months. New methods have recently been introduced and the equipment has been enlarged, thus giving pupils the greatest advantage in their business school preparation.

Esopus Suffrage Meeting.

A suffrage meeting will take place at the home of Mrs. J. J. Smith in West Park on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The following program has been arranged:

Monologue..... Miss Smith
Readings..... Mrs. Smith
Address..... Mrs. Gordon Norrie
Speaker..... Prof. Textor
Monologue..... Miss Smith
Tableaux and Songs by Children.

Refreshments.
It will be an afternoon to please the most indifferent to the cause, and a large attendance is expected. The time of the meeting has been arranged to accommodate those who wish to use the West Shore trains.

The Students' Dance.

What promises to be a decided success in the way of a small informal dance is the one to be given in St. John's parish house Friday evening. Martin's orchestra of Saugerties, which furnished music for dancing at the state armory after the basketball games last winter, has been engaged for the occasion. A good time is assured all those expecting to attend.

Hunter Killed by Own Gun.

George F. D. Cousins of Monroe died in Emergency Hospital at Goshen on Monday from a gunshot wound accidentally self-inflicted on a hunting trip the day before. Cousins had wounded a gray squirrel and fearing it would escape, struck it with the butt of his gun. The gun discharged, its contents of one barrel taking effect in the man's abdomen.

R. R. Pays Widow $10,000.

Mrs. Eleanor E. Jones of Purling, Greene county, as executrix of the estate of her late husband, William A. Jones, who was killed in a railroad wreck at Albany in February last, has received a check from the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Company for $10,000 in settlement of the claim.

Remember when you are boasting of your descent, bud, you're boasting of what you owe to somebody else.—Florida Times-Union.

WARM THE SHIVERY AUTUMN NIGHTS

On these chilly fall nights you need the extra heat of a

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

It will make you comfortable without fuss or trouble. A match touched to the sturdy little heater will fill the room with a glow of warmth. When everything is cozy, it can be turned off just as readily.

You can carry the heater around as easily as a work-basket; wherever you put it, the Perfection is always ready to drive away cold and dampness.

The heater burns best with Socony Kerosene—every drop is clean, smokeless and chuck-full of heat.

You will find the Perfection Heater at department and hardware stores everywhere. Write for free descriptive booklet.

For best results use Socony Kerosene

Standard Oil Company of N. Y.
Stove Dept. 23 South Pearl Street, Albany

SPECIAL SALE AT NEWELL'S

Good Flour, per sack	$1.15	Sweet Clover Brand Milk	12c
Best Flour, per sack	$1.30	Large Mackerel, lb.	12c
Best Butter, lb.	38c	Lima Beans, lb.	10c
Gold Coin High Grade Butterine, 27c		Good Comb Honey	16c
Royal Oleomargarine, Butterine, 22c		Ward's all kinds, Cakes	12c
Potatoes, per peck	36c	Best Medium Beans, lb.	12c
Sweet Potatoes, per peck	35c	Sweet and Sour Pickles, bottle	10c
Granulated Sugar	8c	Good Rice, lb.	8c
Coffee, lb.	16c, 20c, 25c, 30c	2 oz. Bottle Vanilla	10c
Best Tea, lb.	40c, 50c	1 oz. Bottle Lemon	10c
1 lb. Mason Can Cocoa	25c	1 lb. Can Davis Baking Powder	17c
Best Red Salmon	17c	3 Pkgs Nona Such Mince Meat	25c
6 Cans Sardines	25c	3 Pkgs Macaroni	25c
Pink Salmon	10c	3 Pkgs Spaghetti	25c
2 Cans Karo Syrup	25c	Large Mustard Sardines	19c
Fine Salt Pork, lb.	15c	6 Cans Vap Cream	25c
3 Pkgs New Buckwheat Flour, 25c		Onions, per qt.	6c

We can give you these prices every day. We have a large line of the best goods in the city. Also your honest weight and measure.

Free Delivery.

Phone your orders in and we will deliver to any part of the city.

C. B. NEWELL

Wall Paper and Groceries and Paint
59 North Front St. Kingston, N. Y.

The Average Man.

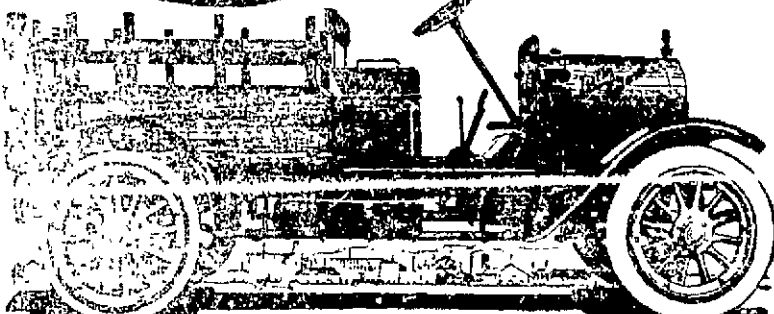

After saying, "I don't want to find fault," the average man proceeds to pick a flaw.

Waste of Time.

It's a waste of time to fix up your statistics for the benefit of the record-ing angel.

Ad No. 22. Chicago Pneumatic Tool Co. 6 inches x 2 cols.

"Little Giant"

A Whale of a 1-ton Truck

GET a demonstration of the wonderfully big and powerful Little Giant—the car that solves 75% of present-day delivery problems. Little Giant dominates the one-ton field. We sell and recommend this truck of power and performance.

The picture shows Model 15—one-ton capacity—Worm Drive—chassis price, $1500—and big value for the money. It has generous 138 inch Wheel Base; Continental Motor; Eiseman High Tension Magneto; Schebler Carburetor; Multiple Disc Clutch; Timken Bearings; Tires; pneumatic 34 x 4 1/2 front; solid 34 x 3 1/2 single rear. Special bodies to order.

COMPLETE LINE INCLUDES

Model 15—1-ton Worm Drive—Chassis Price, $1500
Model H—1-ton Chain Drive—Chassis Price, $1400
Model H—1-ton Chain Drive—Chassis Price, $1500
Model 16—2-ton Worm Drive—Chassis Price, $2500

We're expecting you in.

BYRNE BROS. Agts. for Ulster and adjoining count-ties. Broadway and Henry Street Monumental Works, Kingston.

"WANTED"

Girls and boys to learn a trade with good wages, steady work, and an opportunity to save money. In December, 1915, our girls and boys received checks amounting to ten thousand dollars, ($10,000.00), which represented their savings for a year. This year our employees will receive upwards of fourteen thousand dollars ($14,000.00).

G. W. VAN SLYKE & MORTON

CIGAR MANUFACTURERS

KINGSTON, N. Y.

Squeezing

The Loaf

The soaring price of wheat has decreased the size of the loaf or increased the price. Either means increased cost of living.

The makers of

GRAPE-NUTS

have neither advanced the price, decreased the size of package, nor lessened the quality of this splendid wheat and barley food.

It contains the full nutriment of these sturdy grain—including their invaluable mineral elements, so vital for maintenance of strong bodies, steady nerves and capable brains.

Quickly digested, appetizing—a household word for nearly a score of years—Grape-Nuts easily stands at the head of all prepared cereals for delicious flavours, concentrated nourishment and economy.

Every table should have its daily ration of Grape-Nuts

Sold by Grocers everywhere.

OVERCOATS

S. COHEN'S SONS

331 Wall Street

Kingston, New York

♥ Carter's Underwear ♥

Underwear That Never Disappoints

CARTER'S Women's Separate Garment—In cotton and wool, high neck, long and short sleeve, Dutch neck, short sleeve pants in knee ankle, closed at.....50c, 60c, 85c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.75

Children's

Children's Alma Wrappers—For the tiny tots.....25c to $1.25

Children's Wool Vests and Pants, 50c to $1.50

Children's Cotton Vests and Pants,25c to 50c

Children Abdominal Bands, 25c and 50c

CARTER'S for women in cotton and wool garment. Combinations and separate garments.

High Neck Long Sleeve—A
Dutch Neck Elbow Sleeve—A
Low Neck No Sleeve—A
High Neck Elbow Sleeve—A
Low Neck Short Sleeve—A
Low Neck No Sleeve—K
High Neck Short Sleeve—K

Cotton
Reg. Sizes, $1.00
Out Sizes, $1.25

CARTER'S Wool Combinations $1.50, $2.50, $3.00
Ladies' Wool Abdominal Bands 60c
Men's Combinations—In all weights, cotton, wool and list drop seats $1.50 to $3.50

G.A. HART & CO.
KINGSTON N.Y.

ORPHEUM THEATRE

Matinee 3 P. M.
Evenings 7:15 and 9
10c

TODAY WILLIAM FOX Presents "The Fourth Estate"

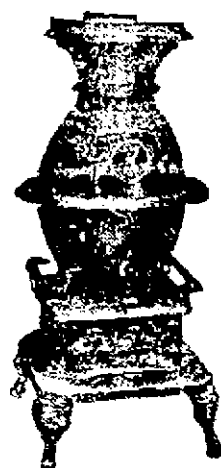

By Joseph Medill Patterson, with Samuel Ryan, Ruth Blair, Clifford Bruce.
The greatest newspaper play ever written.

Coming, Wednesday, Nov. 1.
The Crimson Stain Mystery, with Maurice Costello and Ethel Grandin, in sixteen episodes.

Tel. 1620, Kingston
MAIL ORDERS FILLED
AGENT FOR
THOMAS WARD & CO.'S
FAMOUS
CEDARHURST WHISKEY

1 Bottle Cedarhurst $1.00
1 Bottle Imp. Port Wine 1.00
1 Bottle Imp. Sherry Wine 1.00
1 Bottle Imp. B. B. Brandy 1.00
1 Bottle Fine Brandy 1.00
1 Bottle Carlton Club Gin 1.00
Six Bottles for $5.00

E. J. COLWELL
No. 6 THOMAS ST., KINGSTON

Montour
Garage
Heaters

Economical,
Efficient and Durable

CANFIELD
STOVE COMPANY

Strand and Ferry St.
Rondout, N. Y.

MEXICANS FLEE FROM VILLA'S ARMY

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 26.—Another train load of panic-stricken men and women—refugees from Chihuahua—arrived here today, the fifth in as many days.

General Trevino, Carranza commander at Chihuahua, is short of supplies and ammunition, having lost eleven trainloads in the Palomas battle, they assert. By distributing the captured supplies Villa is gaining strength steadily, they say, and has withdrawn a few miles west of Chihuahua pending the arrival of 3,500 men who have joined him. They say Villa is in a position to cut the railroad line north to Juarez at any moment and that Trevino can escape only in the direction of Torreon.

Rumors that Villa had threatened to kill all who refused to join him when he starts to take Chihuahua also were brought here.

Officially nothing is being given out here. All the dispatches received from Chihuahua have been closely censored and nothing unfavorable to the Carranza cause is permitted to come through.

Issuance of overcoats and winter supplies to the guardsmen on the border began today, indicating they were due for a long stay. It is known all cavalry commands are being kept in readiness to move at a moment's notice.

New York Produce Market.

Wheat—Unsettled, nominal. Chicago Dec. $1.80 1/2 @ $1.81; Chicago May $1.80 1/2 @ 1/2; Chicago July $1.45 @ 1/2; Spot No. 2 red winter $1.85 1/2; c. i. f. New York to arrive 1.88 1/2 f. o. b. to arrive.

Corn—Unsettled, lower. No. 2 yellow new $1.12 1/2; No. 3 yellow new $1.12.

Oats—Steady. Fancy white 61 1/2 @ 63 1/2; ordinary clipped 58 @ 60; standard 59c; No. 3 white 58 1/2; No. 4 white 55c.

Rye—Steady. No. 2 western $1.42; c. i. f. New York; state $1.45; f. o. b. New York.

Barley—Stronger. Malting $1.04 nominal; c. i. f. Buffalo.

Hay—Barely Steady. No. 1 90 @ 95c; No. 2 70 @ 72 1/2; clover mixed 50 @ 55c.

Straw—Easy. No. 1 straight rye 65 @ 70c.

Flour—Unsettled. Spring patents $8.70 @ $9.00; straights $8.40 @ $8.45; clears $7.75 @ $8.00; winter patents $8.00 @ $8.25; straights $7.65 @ $7.90; clears $7.00 @ $7.55.

Potatoes—Stronger. White, nearby $3.75 @ $5.00; Maine, $4.25 @ $4.75; Sweets, $2.25 @ $3.00.

Dressed Poultry—Dull. Chickens, 17 @ 32c; fowls, 15 @ 24c; turkeys, 20 @ 32c; L. L. fresh ducklings, 24c.

Live Poultry—Irregular. Chickens, 15c; fowls, 15 @ 19 1/2; turkeys, 20c; ducks, 17 @ 18c; geese, 30c; spring, 14c.

Butter—Steady, fair. Held and fresh. Creamery extra, 34 1/2 @ 36 1/2; creamery firsts, 35 1/2 @ 37 1/2; state dairy, tubs, 29 @ 35c; process extra, 32 1/2; imitation firsts, 30 1/2 @ 31c.

Eggs—Firm. Nearby white, fancy, 56 @ 62c; nearby brown, fancy, 48 @ 50c; extras, 39 @ 40c; firsts, 34 @ 35c.

Milk—The nominal wholesale price is 4 1/2 and 5 cents a quart delivered in New York.

Pleasant Valley.

The reinstatement, without an apology, of Douglas Howe, son of Alexander Howe, of Pleasant Valley, who was suspended from school for throwing a writing tablet at Miss Emans, his teacher, has caused considerable feeling in the usually quiet village. The school trustees ordered the boy reinstated.

Found Body in River.

Captain Orrin Smith, of the boat Edward R., formerly of Kingston, found the body of a man floating in the East River at the foot of East Eighteenth street, New York. The only mark of identification found in the clothing was a ship caulker's card.

Hallowe'en Social.

The scholars of the Plains Road school, near Walkkill, will give a Hallowe'en social and entertainment at the school house on October 31 at 7:30 o'clock. There will be music games and refreshments. All our parents and friends are cordially invited.

Voting Machines Inadequate.

Because of the heavy registration in Newburgh, it is feared that the voting machines will be inadequate. In one district it will be necessary to average a vote a minute if the registered vote is gotten out.

Happiness is generally a matter of tense, either of the past or of the future. —Philadelphia Record.

Like it?
Watch him!

How men do enjoy that full-bodied H-O flavor! And what a food H-O is for the daily battle of brains and endurance.

H-O THE ONLY STEAM-COOKED OATMEAL

The musical acuteness of horses is shown by the rapidity with which cavalry horses learn the significance of trumpet calls.

One of the hardest things to make a pretty girl understand is that we shouldn't judge by appearances. —Philadelphia Record.

KINGSTON Opera House

Daily 2:30, 7:15 and 9:00—10c

Y. M. C. A. AUDITORIUM

Daily 3, 7:15 and 9—10c

Today Attractions Today
J. M. C. A. Auditorium Friday. The Vitagraph Blue Ribbon Feature presents LUCILLE STEWART in Daniel Frohman presents OWEN MOORE and MARGUERITE COURTOT in the celebrated Comedy-Drama
"THE CONFLICT"
The battle of hearts between two beautiful women. A powerful drama. Produced by Ralph W. Ince.

—ALSO—
BILLIE BURKE in GLORIA'S ROMANCE
Chapter 17—"The Tell-Tale Envelope."

OPERA HOUSE FRIDAY—Y. M. C. A. AUDITORIUM SATURDAY.

Triangle Presents H. B. Warner, in "The Market of Vain Desire"
With Clara Williams. Also every Friday

IN TWO ACTS.

KINGSTON OPERA HOUSE, Matinee and Night, OCTOBER 30

ENORMOUS ALL STAR REVIVAL
THE PRINCE OF PILSEN
PIXLEY and LUDERS INTERNATIONAL MUSICAL COMEDY TRIUMPH
JOYOUS HEARTY, APPROBIOUS MIRTH
BARGAIN MATINEE
COMPANY OF 67-2 CARS OF SOUND EQUIPMENT
37 SINGING BEAUTIFUL GIRLS
DANCING RADIANT GIRLS
TUNEFUL CATCHY ALLURING MUSIC
A TRIO OF BATHING GIRLS
Prices: Matinee—25c, 50c, 75c; Few, $1.00
Night—50c, 75c, $1.00 and $1.50

NATTY SHOES

WE are showing some very new and smart stunts in Fall Footwear for Young Fellows who want The Thing!

There are Dull Gun Metal Calf leathers—Patent Colt leathers and entirely new colorings in Russia leathers—

Indeed, they are smart. Some with fancy tops, some with beautiful perforations, and pinked trimmings. All the new English lasts, the new toe effects, etc.

A regular Feast of Shoe Smartness for Young Men.

Come, See, Mr. Young Kaa!
$3, $3.50, $4, $5 to $6

While Shoes have advanced in Price every where, we are keeping our Prices down to the closest profit margin possible!

JOHN J. LARKIN
Shoes of Quality 18 Broadway

Kingston Opera House, Wed., Nov. 1st

MATINEE AND NIGHT
LYMAN H. HOWE'S
TRAVEL FESTIVAL
HAWAII-SPAIN-NORWAY
PREPAREDNESS
WEST POINT
MANY OTHERS ALL NEW!
PRICES: Matinee—Balcony 25c; Main Floor 35c; Children 15c.
Night—Balcony 25c and 35c; Main Floor 50c.
MAIL ORDERS NOW—SEAT SALE MONDAY.

Advertise in the
One Cent a Word Column.
Quick Results.

OVERCOATS

S. COHEN'S SONS
331 Wall Street Kingston, New York

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1916.

Sun rises, 6:24; sets, 6:04.
Weather, clear. Humidity, 27 to 38.

The Temperature.

The lowest point registered by The Freeman's thermometer last night was 41 degrees. The highest point reached up until noon today was 60 degrees.

Weather Forecast.

Washington, Oct. 26.—Fair, cold tonight. Friday fair.

ST. REMY.

St. Remy, Oct. 25.—An entertainment will be given by the young people at the church on Halloween entitled "A Halloween Party." Admission 10 cents. The play will begin at 7:45 o'clock. Supper will be served free to all members of the Sunday school and home department. This will take the place of the picnic which was not held on account of the epidemic. Ice cream will be for sale, and also supper to all who wish to buy it. Every one come out if you want to have a good time. Proceeds for the Sunday school.

Charles E. Schultz is building an addition to his house.

Schuyler Deyo has purchased a new wagon.

Isaac Piner has had a concrete walk laid in front of his residence.

Mrs. Carl Gillette has poison wood very badly on her face.

Rumor says a wedding in the place in the near future.

Eltzinger Room and family of Wilbur visited Mrs. J. Roosa on Sunday.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Eastman Kodaks, Films and Supplies. CONNELLY DRUG CO., corner Broadway and Strand.

Last week of sale of all household furniture, including stoves, beds, parlor suit, book case, business desk and antiques at 23 East St. James street.

Stair electrical treatment given by appointment. Mrs. H. B. MABEN, 75 Pearl street.

STATIONERY AND KODAKS

A wonderful line of high grade stationery, Kodaks and supplies. Parker and Waterman's fountain pens. MURPHY, 12 E Strand.

MRS. H. W. GOWEY.
53 West Chester street, Kingston.
Official representative, Juca Conservatory of Music. Private instruction in piano, theory, musical history. Conservatory scholarships and advanced credits granted.

H. SCHWARTZ, tailor. Second handed clothing bought and sold. Phone 1594-J.

SPECIAL OFFER

One year's subscription to Designer a copy of Winter's Standard Quarterly and a free pattern, all for 50 cents. O'REILLY'S, 530 Broadway.

Another lot of shirts. All sizes. Dandy patterns. Factory seconds, 50 cents up. McTAGUE'S, 45 Broadway. Telephone.

PLANT NOW.

For spring flowers. Tulips, Hyacinths, Daffodils, Jonquils, Narcissus and Crocus.
VALENTIN BURGEVIN, INC.

HALLOWEEN GOODS

Favors for card parties, fairy carols, masks, lanterns, paper napkins, crepe paper and dandy assortment of novelties. O'REILLY'S, 530 Broadway.

Smith motor wheels, motorcycles, bicycles and sundries. Vulcanizing and repairing. CRESLEY, R. 124 West Park street. Telephone.

At the public's service, day or night. Miller's Taxi. Phone 17.

New 7 passenger touring car for rent. Miller's Taxi Service. Tel. 17.

Awning, Upholstering, Furniture Repairing, Auto Tops Recovered. HENRY EIGHMEY, 94 Highland avenue.

Bargains

Slightly Used PIANOS

Rented for the Summer
W. H. RIDER
304 Wall Street.

MENKE'S DAILY SPORTING LETTER

(By Frank G. Menke).

All For Alma Mater.

Oh, they slammed him, and they jammed him, and broke most all his neck. They gouged an eye, they tore an ear, He looked a human wreck. But when the am'lance guys did come To trundle him away, He fought 'em back, with fractured wing And these here words did say.

Chorus.

"They can bust and they can batter
"This body if they want
"But my love for Alma Mater
"Gives power nought can daunt
"Oh, what care I for death and such
"For pain and unbleeding joints
"Away you books; I need you not,
"Just watch me score some points."

He Lives!!! He Lives!!!

C. Hercules Ebbets will live. The champion of the city of the unbattered and has survived one of the most difficult operations ever performed upon a baseball magnate. It involved the removal from the person of Mr. Ebbets of about $50,000. The surgery was accomplished by Dr. Fandom, of Brooklyn.

The $50,000 became imbedded in Mr. Ebbets's system prior to the playing of the first world series game in 1915. It was shot into him by the diamond enthusiast in Mr. Ebbets's own municipality. The veteran baseball club owner at first felt that he would not have to undergo surgical treatment; that he could work out at least part of the $50,000 from his system and into a bank through the medium of a sixth world series combat.

However, in this Mr. Ebbets was disappointed. The Dodgers, who promised to do the best they could to make the operation unnecessary, failed. And so immediately after the fifth and deciding game of the series was finished Dr. Fandom began preparing Mr. Ebbets for the difficult task of removing the $50,000 which many persons thought to be a task beyond the power of any human to accomplish.

The well-known mogul is reported as "convalescing as speedily as conditions warrant." Whether he will recover absolutely is doubtful. The shock of the operation was very great indeed and friends of Mr. Ebbets fear that he never will be the same again.

The Great Diddle.

"I saw Jess Willard in Los Angeles just before I went east (about five weeks ago). He looked to weigh over 300 pounds and I was sure he would get into real fighting condition. 'Sunny Jim' Coffroth, former Fresno fight promoter.

Coffroth hasn't seen Jess Willard since Johnson was flattened. Willard can get into shape for a fight on very short notice. Jack Curley, associate manager of the champion.

Scores of Memorable Games.

"Can you give the box scores of those games?"

Such a request has come to the writer from all parts of the country since the publication of the articles "Baseball of the Bygone Days." It was a series that dealt with baseball of the past as related to the writer by James Wood, one of the most remarkable players of the early days of the diamond game.

The scores of the old-timers and the youngsters, too, have asked for were those covering the memorable games between the Chicago White Stockings of 1870 which Mr. Wood organized, captained and managed, and the famous Cincinnati Red Stockings.

The requests were turned over to Mr. Wood, who was kind enough to dig through his papers and turn over copies of the box scores to the writer. It will be noticed that the scores show only runs, hits (1b) and total bases. That is because those games were played in the era before the present elaborate box scores came into vogue.

Also it will be seen that the name of the home club is on top of the final tabulation. As previously explained by Mr. Wood, the visiting team always had last but until along in the early 90's.

The tabulation shows how the White Stockings led all the way in the first game, but, in the second game from behind with an amazing rally, and nipped out the team which a year before had come through the season unbeaten, thus giving to the White Stockings the baseball championship.

Here are the scores:

Score of the first game, played in Cincinnati, on September 7, 1870.

Chicago.

R. 1B. TB.

McAtee, 1b. 0 0 0

Wood, 2b. 1 3 3

Outbert, cf.	2	3	6
Flynn, rf.	2	4	4
Treacy, 2f.	2	2	2
King, c.	1	2	2
Stevie, 3b.	1	3	2
Pinkham, p.	0	3	3
Duffy, ss.	1	0	0
Totals	19	20	23

Cincinnati.	R.	1B.	TB.
McVey, rf.	1	0	0
Gaede, 1b.	0	2	3
Waterman, 3b.	2	2	3
Alison, c.	0	2	2
H. Wright, cf.	0	0	0
Leonard, ss.	1	0	0
Brinard, 2b.	0	2	2
Seasy, 2b.	1	2	2
Dean, rf.	1	1	1
Totals	6	11	12

Chicago. 123456789
Chicago. 0030021022—10
Cincinnati. 000100032—6
Score of the game, played in Chicago on October 14, 1870:

Chicago.	R.	1B.	TB.
McAtee, 1b.	0	0	0
Wood, 2b.	2	3	3
Outbert, cf.	3	2	4
Flynn, rf.	2	2	3
Treacy, 2f.	2	2	2
King, c.	3	1	1
Stevie, 3b.	2	2	4
Pinkham, p.	0	2	2
Duffy, ss.	2	2	3
Totals	16	16	21

Cincinnati.	R.	1B.	TB.
G. Wright, ss.	2	2	2
Gaede, 1b.	2	2	3
Waterman, 3b.	1	2	4
Alison, c.	3	3	3
H. Wright, cf.	2	1	1
Leonard, 2f.	2	0	0
Brinard, 2b.	1	4	1
Seasy, 2b.	0	1	1
McVey, rf.	0	0	0
Totals	13	15	18

Legore Starring.

One of the safest little bets right now is that Harry Legore of Yale, will be almost unanimously chosen as an all-American back, unless some body renders him hors de football. The Eli backfield man has started in every department of play so far: he has played a magnificent game defensively and has been superb on offensive work. He is fast, tricky, brainy, courageous—and more. He was almost universally named in 1914 for the top honors in football and so far he stands out superior to every rival.

NEW HURLEY

New Hurley, Oct. 26.—Miss C. J. and M. F. Hendricks of Poughkeepsie were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob L. Woolsey.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Mackey and family, the Rev. and Mrs. J. J. DeKacker and daughter and the Rev. G. B. Scholten enjoyed a motor trip to Ashokan last Friday.

An L. T. L. meeting will be held at the school house on Friday afternoon of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris. Thompson of Troy have been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Fowler.

Mrs. Wilbur D. Van Wyck, Mrs. May Van Wyck and Miss Bertha Sutton spent last Friday with Mr. and Mrs. Philip McCord.

The Rev. George B. Scholten was in New Paltz on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Malcomb and sons of Ardona were guests at Eli Mackey's on Sunday.

The road commissioner, Grant Upright of the town of Shawangunk, with a number of men, has been greatly improving the roads between the McDermott creamery and New Hurley.

On Sunday morning, October 15, while away from home, Mrs. C. Van Kleeck had a horse, wagon and harness stolen from her barn by a man who had been employed by her for a few days. No trace has as yet been found of the rig.

Last Wednesday afternoon Isaac Jenkins, a well known resident of this vicinity, had the misfortune to fall and break his hip. Mr. Jenkins is 82 years old and lies in a critical condition.

L. W. Miller, secretary of the board of foreign missions of New York city, will address the congregation next Sunday morning, October 29.

OLIVEREA.

Oliveria, Oct. 26.—Superintendent of Schools W. J. Andrews attended the convocation of the University of the State of New York at Albany last week.

John B. Hinkley and daughter Verne, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hinkley and Mrs. Lila Garrett and two children of Harrodsburg were guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Satterlee on Monday.

W. H. Fancher is spending a few days out of town.

R. H. Satterlee was at Kingston Monday.

Leo Satterlee is attending the Margaretville High School.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ennist of Allaben were visitors here Sunday.

Miss Ethel Rikert spent a few days with friends at Pine Hill this week.

A special meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society was held at the home of the president, Mrs. H. E. Dutcher, Wednesday afternoon.

WARD IS WORKER FOR HIS DISTRICT

Congressman Secured Place on Important Committee on Agriculture—Campaign Based on Strong Record for First Term Member.

Besides his farming interests Congressman Ward, who is a candidate for re-election on the Republican ticket, holds a prominent place in business activities of his home country. He is president of the Liberty Business Men's Association, director in the National Bank of Liberty and director of the Livingston Manor National Bank.

The record of Congressman Ward is clean as a "hound's tooth." Honesty and efficiency are the watchwords of Charles B. Ward in representing this district in congress. His record shows that and he ought to be sent back for another term.

CHARLES B. WARD.

The congressman resides with his family, consisting of his wife and four children on his farm at DeBruce.

It may not be generally known the distinction this congressional district has in having its representative in congress Hon. Charles B. Ward, the sole representative from New York state on one of the most important committees in the federal government, namely, the committee on agriculture of the house of representatives. That Mr. Ward is a member of this committee is not only an honor for him but it is an honor to the district which he represents.

When elected to congress on the Republican ticket in November, 1914, Mr. Ward just at once securing a committee appointment where, he could be of most service to the people of his district. He wanted a place on the committee on agriculture but this was a major committee; it was one of the most important committees of the House and it seemed out of the question for a first term man. But Ward had made up his mind that it wasn't out of the question. He worked hard for it with enthusiasm and determination.

That he knew what he was doing is shown by the fact that he got what he wanted and it is the first time, within the memory of the oldest congressman, that a first term member secured a place on a major committee. The congressman deserves credit for securing such a position and now that he is before the people for re-election they ought to show him their appreciation.

The congressman owns a large farm in Sullivan county; he is much concerned in agriculture and has kept in close touch with farming interests in his district. In the arguments at the time the agricultural appropriation bill was before the House, Mr. Ward was active and his ideas of the relationship of the federal government to the industry of agriculture appear in the Congressional Record for April 29, 1916.

Ward is a worker. Aided by the experience of one term he will be even more valuable to the district in the next congress. He has attended faithfully to duty and is making his campaign for re-election on the strength of his record during the past most important session of congress.

WEST SAUGERTIES.

West Saugerties, Oct. 26.—C. E. meeting held Sunday evening at 7:30. Topic, "The Reward of Righteousness." 1 Cor. 3: 23. (Honorary members meeting).

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Martin and daughter of Tannersville are spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Sarah Bach.

Milton Hommel has commenced work on his new bungalow. D. W. Cole and Peter C. Myer are doing the carpenter work.

Mrs. Charles Bradley was called to the city Monday by the death of her aunt.

Mrs. Katchinski and daughters

Dress well and save money by shopping at EIGHT C. A. MUM

New Bath Robes

$3.50, 3.97, 4.50, 4.97

SAVE MONEY HERE

S. C. Eighmey

Black 9-10c

97c Day

SAVE

Blue Ribbon

LUCILLE

New Winter Coats and Suits Sale For This Week

Ladies' Winter Coats

$8.50, 9.50, 9.97, 12.00, 12.50, 15.00, 18.00, 20.00, 22.00, 25.00, 30.00 and 35.00.

Ladies' Fall Suits

$7.50, 10.00, 12.50, 15.00, 18.00, 22.00 and 25.00.

Misses' and Children's Winter Coats

$2.50, 3.97, 4.50, 4.97, 5.50, 6.50, 6.97, 7.50, 7.97, 8.97 and 9.97.

You can surely save money by securing your Winter Coat or Suit at this early fall sale. Many of these extra values cannot be replaced because of advanced cost of material. Come early and make your selection.

THE DOWNTOWN DRY GOODS STORE

26 BROADWAY, RONDOUT, N. Y.

Jasmine Ink! SPECIALS

With a bottle of Jasmine Ink at 10 cents you can purchase a

$1.00 Fountain Pen, Solid Gold Pen, for.....75 cents

$1.00 Fountain Pen, Pearl Mounted, for.....65 cents

.50 Fountain Pen, Self Filler, for.....25 cents

.25 Fountain Pen, for.....9 cents

.25 Box Paper, for.....17 cents

.10 Ladies' Pearl Handled Penholder, for.....5 cents

.05 Clutch Pencil for.....3 cents

.05 Pencils, Erasers, Penholders, etc., for.....2 cents

CHAS. L. McBRIDE, Pharmacist

634 Broadway, Near O'Neil St.

Phone 261

left here Sunday for New York city.

Glenford and Elden Myers motored to Saugerties Monday and called on friends.

Mrs. Charles Rightmeyer, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Stanley Osborn, at Saugerties, returned home Saturday.

Charles Smith, Mrs. J. Smith, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Harry Smith and mother of Saugerties motored to this place Saturday and spent the afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mott.

Henry Rasmussen, who has been teaching Mrs. Whitbeck to run her car, has returned to Catskill.

Mrs. Anna Fisher took a trip to Saugerties in Mrs. Murphy's car.

Mrs. Elizabeth Renner's dog, Bobby, is boarding with Harold Cash-dollar for the winter.

Claude Hommel, who is employed in Saugerties, was an over Sunday visitor with his brother, Milton Hommel.

Mrs. Fred Hommel, Mrs. D. H. Myer and Miss Hattie Snyder visited friends at Saugerties Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. D. H. Myer spent a few days last week at Pompton Lakes, N. Y., visiting friends.

Mrs. J. Nepivoda spent Saturday at Saugerties shopping.

Mrs. Milton Hommel visited Saugerties Wednesday and spent the day with Mrs. D. Schoonmaker.

Glenford Myers and David Delamater of Pompton Lakes, N. Y., are spending this week with friends here.

Jessie Delamater and family spent Sunday in this place.

Mrs. Salinda Garrison and daughter returned to this place Sunday after spending the summer in Tannersville.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mott and Mrs.

The Original Turkish Blend

20 for 15c

FATIMA

A Sensible Cigarette

Xellie Snyder visited friends at Platt Clove Tuesday.

Miss Marjorie Brett spent the week end with her aunt at Lake Katrine.

Miss Lizzie Byer is visiting Mrs. Daniel Whalen.

Henry Bach and Mrs. Addie Whitbeck motored to Catskill one day last week; also to Woodstock and Saugerties Sunday.

Mrs. Sarah Bach is ill. Dr. Holcomb of Palenville is the attending physician.

Mrs. Mary Gotterup is treating her house to a coat of paint. Chris Hommel is doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Myer and son, Elden, spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Morey at Kiskatom.

The Important Thing.

While devoting so much attention to physical exercise in the educational process, it would be well to introduce more spiritual exercise. It is more important.—Ohio State Journal.

OVERCOATS

S. COHEN'S SONS

331 Wall Street Kingston, New York